He hits with shock and has the potential to be an immediate contributor. I believe that’s going to happen. Julian was one of the first commits for the 2019 season and has been with us throughout the entire way. We’re very excited about Julian and what he’s doing.”

DANTONIO ON BOUWMEESTER:
“Jack has a unique skill set. He was just too good to pass on. In Australian style football, you’ve seen that happen over here more and more in terms of our punters in American college football. Jack has a very explosive leg and can basically put it anywhere on the field in any way, spiraling or end over end. I just felt like the unique skill set with his background, he was too good to pass up. He is an early enrollee and it will be exciting to watch him in the spring to see how he adapts to American football. I’m sure he’ll have to adapt a little bit, but I’m sure that will take place. DANTONIO ON DOBBS: “Devontae is an outstanding football player. We’re very excited to have him. He’s a five-star player, an Under Armour All-American, and one of the top-five offensive tackles in the country. I remember back, noticed him as a ninth grader when he came to camp. He was playing against the seniors, doing outstanding. At that point in time we started recruiting him and made sure he knew we wanted him as a football player and person. He became a Spartan early on in the process, never wavered. I think he’ll have an opportunity to play very, very early in his career. He’ll play on the offensive side, could fit into any of the three basic positions up there. Looking forward to him being here.”

DANTONIO ON DUPLAIN:
“J.D. played offensive line and defensive line in high school, but projects right now to be a defensive lineman. We recruited him as a power athlete. He can snatch and clean 350 pounds, and bench presses 225 15 to 18 times. He’s got a lot of shock, a lot of ability to run and move. You could see him possibly as an offensive lineman, I don’t think there’s any question that’s a possibility or a reality, but we’ll work with him on defense initially to see how he moves on that side of the ball. I think he has a huge upside. He’s 6-3 and an athletic 303 pounds.”
