

Camden Line Service Changes

Effective September 28, 2026

This schedule change is being implemented to launch a new direct MARC service that connects the Brunswick and Camden Lines. The service will allow riders to travel directly between Brunswick Line stations and Baltimore's Camden Station without transferring at Washington Union Station. The service will directly connect Brunswick, Point of Rocks, Barnesville, Germantown, Metropolitan Grove, Gaithersburg, Rockville, Kensington, Silver Spring, College Park, Laurel, and Baltimore Camden Station, expanding regional travel opportunities for MARC riders.

Morning service from Baltimore Camden Station to Washington Union Station

- No changes

Afternoon service from Washington Union Station to Baltimore Camden Station

- No changes

Changes to morning service from Washington Union Station to Baltimore Camden Station:

- Train 840 and 846 will not change.
- Train 842 (currently the 7:00am departure from Union Station)
 - o This will be replaced by the new Brunswick/Camden Line run-through Train 830.
 - o This train will operate directly from Silver Spring to College Park, bypassing Washington Union Station, then onto Laurel and Baltimore Camden Station.
 - o Passengers traveling from Washington Union Station can ride Train 840, 844, or 846 or use Washington Metrorail to transfer to Train 830 at Silver Spring (Red Line) or College Park (Green Line).

- Train 844 (currently the 7:40am departure from Washington Union Station) will operate 25 minutes earlier, departing Union Station at 7:15am and arriving at Baltimore Camden Station at 8:23am.

Changes to afternoon service from Baltimore Camden Station to Washington Union Station:

- Trains 853, 857, and 859 will not change.
- New train number: Train 831
 - o It will depart Baltimore Camden Station at 5:00pm, stopping at Laurel and College Park, then operate directly to Silver Spring, bypassing Washington Union Station.
 - o Passengers traveling into Washington Union Station can ride Train 853, 855, or 857 or transfer to the Washington Metrorail at College Park (Green Line) or Silver Spring (Red Line).
- Train 855 (4:45pm departure from Dorsey) will no longer stop at Savage.
 - o This change should improve the performance of Trains 855, 850, 852, and 856.
 - o Passengers that use Train 855 from Savage can ride Trains 853 or 857.
