A MESSAGE FROM THE PUBLISHER

KNOWLEDGE is BEAUTIFUL!

When you know something that could make life better for millions, you have a duty to share it.

That's why SNS has always been more than a product company. We're also in the education business.

First, we want to teach the world that women needn't sacrifice their health for their beauty—and that includes nails!

Thanks to SNS dipping powders, every manicure can actually make the natural nails healthier and stronger.

Health is important...but so is beauty! And creating beauty takes skill, especially with nails. There's only one way to build lasting skill: hands-on education.

So...this year we founded SNS Academy to deliver the best training to the greatest number of nail technicians.

Read about SNS Academy in this new edition of Nail Health & Beauty. You'll also see our latest product innovations, find new business opportunities, and learn from some great industry leaders.

To your good health
and success,

As a model of success in the nail industry, V&K Cosmetic stands apart. In four short years, this upstart distributor has conquered the Polish market and spread across Europe. Founder Violetta Mrowiec and her husband Krzysztof are 20-year veterans of the nail fashion business, but their massive growth only began when they embraced SNS as their major focus.

Founder Violetta Mrowiec and her husband Krzysztof

Owning the Territory

The drama began when V&K Cosmetic presented SNS at a major trade show in 2014. Their booth was mobbed by eager salon owners, nail artists and distributors. No one had seen anything like SNS dipping powders before. Professionals were immediately enchanted with the ease of application, lack of UV light, durability of the nails and a stunning array of colors.

More than that, the climate was right for a health-giving product: increasingly, women were expressing concern about damage to their nails from conventional gels and acrylics. Finally, salon owners were thrilled by a high-quality product that could not be purchased or used directly by consumers.

Only for Pros: the Training Principle

The Mrowiecs had always focused their distribution business exclusively on professionals, and with SNS they recognized immediately the importance of training. They established a business model that only registered salons could buy from them, and registration includes a commitment to training. "SNS dipping powders require skill," explains Joanna Golec, the company's Business Development Manager. "We've made this a strict rule to protect the consumer experience. When the products are applied correctly, consumers are happy and come back for more. That's what ensures the long-term health of the business."

Today V&K Cosmetic offers many kinds of training, for beginner technicians and advanced nail artists. These are conducted in six company-owned salons, located in Poland's major cities. Each specially equipped salon serves a triple purpose: delivering impeccable service to nail clients, distributing products to other salons, and training. Training is conducted by a cadre of expert technicians who have developed their own skills to an exceptional level of mastery. The emphasis on training has proved especially important in other European countries, where the founders discovered many salons offering SNS products without the skills to apply them.

The SNS Advantage

In Poland itself, V&K Cosmetic is the undisputed master of the dipping powder universe. Everyone knows the name SNS—and more important, they recognize SNS as the leading brand. Since the company began, several imitators have appeared on the scene, but none has been able to dislodge the dominance of SNS in Poland. The primary reason is product quality. "The powders are simply better," Joanna explains. "Better pigmentation, better consistency, a better all-around formula..."

Another reason for V&K Cosmetic's success with SNS is the huge investment it has made in building the brand. From the start, founders Violetta and Krzysztof have poured their time and resources into making the SNS name known. They attend some 15 beauty trade shows every year, and they've conducted intensive social media campaigns through Facebook and Instagram in particular. They've also built up their website, while communicating with their salon customers through email newsletters and text messaging. All this activity has secured them an invincible position inside Poland. At the same time, it's provided a model for partner distributors in other parts of Europe.

Beyond Poland: a European Adventure

Expanding beyond Poland came naturally, because as the reputation of SNS grew, distributors in different countries started looking for a dependable source. The growing reputation of V&K Cosmetic made it the obvious solution, and enquiries began to pour in...from Bosnia, Croatia, Czech Republic, Romania, Hungary, Austria, Italy and, most recently, Russia.

Meanwhile, Violetta and her team have been traveling constantly from region to region, discovering important differences in how the nail industry operates, new trends, and all-important consumer attitudes. They are scrupulously careful about who they take on as a distributor partner outside Poland. Their standards are high, and they look for a company that is serious about training and will take good care of the SNS brand. They also expect their partners to make substantial investments in social media and other marketing, just as they have done themselves.

In just the past year, there has been a radical shift in the European nail industry with more and more distributors selling directly to consumers. There are two problems with this. First, it undercuts the business of the salons and spas. Secondly, with a product like SNS, consumers are left with a solution they cannot effectively use themselves.

Resisting this trend, V&K Cosmetic has held fast to its principle of selling only to professionals. A small team of sales representatives travels constantly, building relationships, explaining the products and introducing the trainings. As a result, V&K Cosmetic has won a unique place of trust throughout its growing market. The company is seen as both an authority and a friend by salon owners and partner distributors throughout the region.

A Glowing Future

With so much success in just four years, the future looks rosy for V&K Cosmetic. The company now has a regular presence at the famous Bologna CosmoProf, the largest beauty trade show in Europe. More company owned salons are planned, and with the recent addition of Russia, distribution will spread to a far wider geographical market. No matter how large the operation becomes, however, the owners Violetta and Krzysztof insist that their focus will remain unchanged: serving professionals with the best products, and the best trainings.

HERE ARE 12 REASONS WHY

Nails Love SNS!

1. HEALTHY:

With every application, the SNS dipping powder system builds the health and strength of the natural nail.

2. ODORLESS:

There's virtually no odor with SNS, and that's a huge advantage in the salon environment.

3. NON-ALLERGENIC:

Consumers and technicians with allergies consistently prefer SNS for its non-allergenic ingredients.

4. MORE COLORS:

SNS offers over 400 SNS Gelous colors—a wider range than any other major brand.

5. FAST:

Drying is instant—and with SNS dipping powders, no UV light is required.

6. MIRROR FINISH:

SNS creates a smooth and dazzling nail surface that makes women love how they look.

7. FLEXIBLE & STRONG:

The resulting nail is both flexible and strong, while protecting health and ensuring beauty.

8. LASTING:

The treated nails last 14 days or more in the rough and tumble of everyday use.

9. LIGHTWEIGHT:

The SNS nail feels light and natural, which gives women greater confidence in their nails.

10. STAINLESS:

The nail doesn't stain: that's a big deal for hair colorists and others who work with dyes.

11. GREAT NAIL ART:

You can create amazing nail art with SNS—just look at the examples in this magazine.

12. EASY TO APPLY:

With a little training, any nail technician can apply SNS dipping powders quickly and easily.

HOW HEALTHY NAILS BECAME THE CONSUMER'S #1 PRIORITY

THE DIPPING POWDER REVOLUTION

Since SNS introduced dipping powders in the 1990s, the world has changed. We've seen a massive growth in everyday health trends, from yoga to ketogenic dieting to mindful meditation. A new generation of women are putting their health first.

The new "health surge" is having a huge impact on beauty products of every kind. One result: dipping powders are the fastest-growing and most popular trend in nails. The message SNS launched back in the last century has now become an industry mantra: women can enjoy nails that are healthy AND beautiful.

SNS—Still the Leader

Dozens of brands have jumped on the dipping powder bandwagon, but as everyone knows, SNS dipping powders are by far the best.

That's because SNS is constantly developing product innovations, all with one goal: to give women a fabulous experience of nail health and beauty.

SAFETY FIRST!

The SNS bases and sealers contain strong adhesives. Use them exactly as you've been trained. If a bottle cap gets stuck DO NOT FORCE IT OPEN! Simply soak the whole bottle, with cap, in hot water for three minutes. Then place a pedicure towel over the cap and gently twist it open.

THE FOUNDATIONS OF NAIL HEALTH

SNS BASES AND SEALERS

At the heart of the SNS dipping powder system is a range of unique products called SNS Bases & Sealers. They bind the color to the nail, provide a beautiful mirror-finish, and most of all ensure the health of the natural nail.

SNS Bases & Sealers were designed by SNS scientists to ensure the following:

- Use natural materials wherever possible
- Nourish the natural nail with healthful ingredients
- Eliminate toxic odors in the salon
- Minimize allergenic effects
- Ensure that colors are brilliant and consistent
- Provide a light, strong and flexible nail
- Protect the nails against UV light

It's because of SNS Bases & Sealers that nails actually become stronger and healthier with each SNS application!

Nutrients for the Nail

Take a look at the powerful nutrients featured in the SNS Bases & Sealers:

VITAMIN D3

Boosts elasticity of the tissues and stimulates collagen production, while helping to replenish the cells and maintain their natural moisture.

CALCIUM

An essential component for cell regeneration and tissue strength; it also has a protective function, stimulating the production of natural antioxidants to preserve cell health.

PERFECT FOR PEDICURES

SNS NAIL LACQUERS

SNS dipping powders are wildly popular—but they aren't appropriate for pedicures. So how do you provide your client with matching fingers and toes?

Easy answer...SNS Nail Lacquers!

SNS Nail Lacquers provide a beautiful range of polishes that perfectly match the famous SNS Gelous Colors—and they match SNS GelStar™ colors, too.

It's All in the Family

SNS understands you may need to use a mix of different SNS products for the same client. So we came up with a brilliantly simple solution: the SNS 3-in-1 MasterMatch™ System.

With a range of colors that match across all our product lines, you can get a unified effect whichever product you use.

SNS Nail Lacquers are part of the MasterMatch™ System, and they're just perfect for the client who wants her toes to match her beautiful SNS fingernails.

THREE TYPES OF PRODUCT,
ONE FAMILY OF COLORS

3-IN-1 MASTER MATCH™

Here's another SNS first: a choice of three different nail product lines, united by one family of colors.

3-in-1 MasterMatch™ offers a choice of 150 colors, all perfectly matching across SNS Nail Lacquers, SNS Gelous Colors and SNS GelStar™.

With 3-in-1 MasterMatch™, SNS makes it easy for salons to mix and match products to meet the client's needs. That's one beautiful idea!

Different Products, Same Colors

3-in-1 MasterMatch™ provides perfectly matching colors for nail lacquers, dipping powder, and gel polish.

SNS NAIL LACQUERS

SNS Nail Lacquers are perfect for pedicures. Thanks to the 3-in-1 MasterMatch™ color system, they perfectly match SNS Gelous Colors and SNS GelStar™.

SNS GELOUS COLORS

The industry leader in dipping powders...SNS Gelous Colors are light, durable and flexible, with a stunning mirror finish. They're easy to apply with no UV light, and every application leaves the natural nail bed healthier.

SNS GELSTAR™

The world's healthiest gel, SNS GelStar™ contains Vitamin E and Calcium to support healthy nails. Fast application for a brilliant mirror surface, and no alcohol needed for top.

Or Choose 2-in-1...

Just need SNS GelStar™ and/or SNS Nail Lacquers? We also offer 2-in-1 MasterMatch™ sets for your convenience.

How to Enter

All you need do is create a finished set of SNS Nails, take a photo, and post it using the hashtag #thisismysns.

You can also send us your artwork via email at socialmedia@snsnails.com.

Here are the guidelines for your SNS nail art photographs:

- You must use SNS products for the nails!
- The submitted image(s) must be yours
- You must include the name and number of SNS product(s) used
- Use a clean background—NO logos or salon names visible (we'll credit you)

In addition, selected images will be chosen and shared across our social media platforms. If we share your image, we will credit you and your salon!

IMPORTANT NOTE:

LA NAIL SUPPLY

IT'S A FAMILY AFFAIR

The Truong Family

“...this health wave hasn’t fully hit the nail industry yet. When it does, SNS will be out there in front.”

—Eric Truong

How does a tiny mom-and-pop store occupying 600 square feet grow almost ten times to become a leading force in the Atlanta nail supply industry? The answer is one word: family. LA Nail Supply is the story of three generations coming together to become a source of inspiration for their customers, their community and themselves.

First generation immigrant Linh Truong stumbled into nails by chance. A skilled carpenter, he was commissioned to make 12 tables for a newly opening nail salon. Then he was asked to make another set. Looking around, he realized that nails were booming, particularly among his Vietnamese compatriots. With so much demand for his abilities, Linh quit his job and opened a business making nail stations and pedicure chairs. A natural entrepreneur, he recognized that all these new salons needed nail supplies. A little research revealed how few distributors there were in Atlanta at that time, so he decided to jump in, launching LA Nail Supply in tandem with his furniture-building business.

From the beginning, everyone in his extended family pitched in to help, beginning with his three sons Kelly, Eric and Caleb. Eric, now 23, recalls: “We’d stay up till midnight on Saturday, getting product bagged for the Sunday rush. My mom, Khuong Truong, was a driving force from the beginning. Grandma and grandpa would help, and all sorts of aunts, uncles and neighbors. It was definitely a family affair.”

Dipping into the Health Wave

An important turning point for the business came with the introduction of SNS dipping powders. Customers were excited by the new alternative to gels and acrylics. But in Eric’s view, the best is yet to come. “If you look around, there’s a huge growth in health awareness among women everywhere: yoga, organic foods, all sorts of diets...but this health wave hasn’t fully hit the nail industry yet. When it does, SNS will be out there in front.”

Today at LA Nail Supply, the younger generation is beginning to take more of a lead. While Eric studies business at college, his elder brother Kelly is running day-to-day operations—but always with the active guidance of their parents. Eric describes the two brothers spending frequent long evenings, crafting their vision for the company’s future.

A Good-Looking Future

“For my mom and dad, the overriding priority was to sell product,” Eric says. “And rightly so: they did the heavy lifting that got the business off the ground. Now we’re able to expand our focus.” Two new directions are emerging. On the one hand, the company is adding education as a key offering. Training is vital with dipping powders, to ensure the optimum consumer experience that ultimately drives demand. Also, the new generation is predictably engaging in more sophisticated marketing, such as social media, with special attention to design. “When things look their best on the outside, that inspires everyone to do their best on the inside,” Eric explains. “Nevertheless, we’ll never lose sight of our core values: great product and education, with great quality and pricing.”
