Bubble trouble game free miniclip

as some others mentioned in their review, the game became extremely difficult around level 6 (I personally have been stuck in the second very difficult level of level 6 for at least a week now). One thing that I think will help with this problem is that there are more opportunities to earn coins in the game, as in live mode, or you can even add a player mode for anyone with the app (like pairing w/other random players or something). Also, I've noticed a glitch: sometimes when you get more powerups it causes the characters to kinda jump, sometimes making them collide with bubbles in the air. Apart from these two things, this game is really good, and it definitely lives up to the original desktop game. Hello Shingami, all great comments! Thank you. You're right - the 6th floor starts to get harder (the 7th floor is also quite difficult). Now you can earn more money from playing Staying alive mode (and even earn daily bonuses). The glitch has finally been fixed. It lasted too long. Your report helped me narrow down the problem. Thanks for playing the game! And for your good words. Sincerely here, the gameplay is very intense. You've got to throw yourself into tank battles, destroy enemy tanks, customize your future armored vehicles and compete. This is an MMO (massively multiplayer online game) with real-time PvP-battles that features crystals and tankoins as an in-game currency that one can collect through complete matches, Microtransactions, Box Openers, etc. CyberiaPC Developers CyberiaPC Publishing House Released on 2006 Genre Puzzle Game rated 4.5/548 Bubble Trouble is a flash puzzle game where you have to break bubbles. PLZ PLZ PLZ HELP MEP Posted by: Millie To beat level 20 you need to turn the blue ones Hand. Then you need to turn the orange. Try really hard not to turn a yellow completely until all those oranges are gone. Only shoot at it if it will hit you otherwise, octagonal things will be bouncing everywhere and there will be many things trying to kill you. STRATEGY: Always on the right!!!! Wait for the bubbles to come to you!!! You!!! then turn them on. Try really hard to make sure the bubbles don't get in your right side otherwise it is a lot harder to have them coming at you in both directions. You can walk towards the bubbles but MAKE SURE NONE OF THEM GET BEHIND YOU!!! Posted by: J - STER on level 20, it doesn't really matter trying to just get one color at a time though.. Posted by: Emily on level 25 you must have a shield to win. If you go down the last ladder with out a shield, you will get hit no matter what. Posted by: drewisnthehouse83 For level 25 you must have a blue shield when you go down the last ladder. (purple/pink heath) But to get that shield, you need to press the gray rectange at the top left of the screen. Good luck! P.S. if you don't have a shield when you go down that last ladder, you DIE no matter what!
