Introduction

Please allow me to extend my congratulations for purchasing Authority Site Launchpad VIP Program, our training for building your own flagship authority sites that:

- Make you the go-to authority in your market or industry
- Converts more first-time visitors into customers
- Gets you ranked highly in the search engines
- Automatically attracts new visitors 100% organically
- Builds an e-mail list you can use to launch new products and services
- Creates a real asset, a long-term business that you can sell
- Is scalable, outsourceable, and possible to fully automate

I've created well over 100 websites over my last 10 years online, and for 90% of them, I've only recently discovered that I did it completely the wrong way. For a long time, my strategy when it came to niche website creation was quantity over quality. It worked very, very well, for a long time...so I kept doing it.

But, as I'm sure you know, things are much different today. For the better. You can say all the bad things you want about Google (er, Alphabet Inc.) but they are continuously refining their search results in an effort to improve them. They have not always gotten it right, but over time, they have steadily improved.

Google wants to deliver the best possible search results to users so that users continue to trust them and use their ecosystem (so they view their ads). They have a direct incentive to make sure everyone plays by the rules.

The rules you see outlined in Authority Site Launchpad are the sum of all my experiences building websites over the last 10 years. I've transitioned to the Authority Site Model, with a heavy emphasis on quality and focus on a single website versus having dozens of small individual niche websites in multiple different sectors.

While the Google updates did hurt the rankings of many of my smallest and weakest websites, it improved my business overall because it forced me to deliver better content to my users. Once I saw what was working, I hired writers to focus exclusively on building out the websites that were performing the best and transform them into authority websites, with longer, better content.

Throughout these tutorials, you'll discover exactly what steps I followed to build my most successful authority sites of all time, including the “twists” I’m applying to my authority sites today to produce the best keywords, content and messaging for my users, visitors and customers.

This is important, and I hope it really hits home with you: My focus on providing my visitors with quality over quantity has resulted in an increase in conversions, profit, and earnings per hour spent working on my business.

Included with Authority Site Launchpad, you get this quick start manual, plus:

How To Setup Your Authority Website For Automatic Traffic

- Includes Step-By-Step Authority Site Setup Worksheet
- Includes Scoring Sheet To Build Landing Pages

How To Uncover The Most Profitable Top Level Keywords

- Includes Step-By-Step Keywords Worksheet
- Includes Top Ranking Opportunities Spreadsheet

How To Systemically Build Authority Site Backlinks

- Includes Step-By-Step Backlink Worksheet
- Includes Guest Posting Relationship Tracker

How To Use Market Research Surveys To Identify Hyper-Responsive Customers and Prospects

- Includes Step-By-Step Survey Setup Worksheet
- Includes Product Feedback & Testimonial Template
- Includes Survey Tracking Template

Free Content Formula Bonus

- Includes Step-By-Step Instructions for Building Great Content
- Includes Instructions on Using WP Newswire
- Includes Templates and Flow Charts For Total Clarity

Plus many, many other unannounced bonuses you get that we refer to. 😊 Start by reading How To Setup Your Authority Website For Automatic Traffic first. You’ll find references to the other guides within the Authority Site Launchpad Core System while you read but read each of them first from beginning-to-end so you can absorb everything you’ll discover.

You'll ultimately read the setup guide first (to lay out the "rules" for building out your Authority Site), the keywords guide second (to help you discover what to create your content about), the backlinks guide third (to help you start driving more traffic to your Authority Site), and then the survey guide last (to help boost the sales conversion rates of your website and earn more money.)

Once you've read these, then download and follow the guidelines in Free Content Formula to start building out your first content articles for your Authority Site quickly, following the rules that we lay out inside the Setup manual. Your other bonuses will help you monetize, scale up and outsource the development of your Authority Sites, once you're ready.

We highly recommend reading through all of the materials at least twice before getting started, and then sleeping on it one night before taking action. Print out the worksheets and checklists that are included right now and use the back of those sheets to take your own notes. Writing down notes as you go along will help you mesh all of the pieces together and spark new ideas of your own.

Your head will be swimming with ideas after reading this core training, and I've personally found that ideas often crystalize into specifics and action after a single night of contemplation.

Do not wait longer though, or you risk losing motivation.

Take daily action towards building your authority site, and remember that you are building a real, long-term business and asset. Rome wasn't built in a day – trust in the blueprint we have provided you.

Print the worksheets provided out now (but not the templates or spreadsheets – they are meant for digital use) and start reading.

Setting up your Authority Website in 90 Minutes

We've gotten the process down to a science for building new authority sites. We can get an authority site fully ready to go in about 90 minutes. Your very first time, it might take a little longer because you're doing it for the first time and you'll need to create a couple of new accounts you might not currently have – but it will not take much longer than that to your "core" up and ready-to-go.

(Once you have Wordpress installed using the instructions below, you can start building it and improving your Authority Site overtime using the guidelines and instructions we lay out for you. Everything else is secondary up until that point.)

We use A2 Web Hosting for our authority sites, and just use shared hosting. This works fine for even high-traffic authority sites, and is reliable, fast and reasonably priced. To setup Wordpress, just log in to your A2 Hosting account, and click on the cPanel button.

Then you just enter your credentials you want to use for your new authority site and it will automatically install it for you, giving you the login URL and a username and password.

As an added bonus, with A2 Hosting, your Wordpress website will be automatically optimized for speed and security.

If you're setting up your 2nd authority website (or 3rd...) you'll need to set each of these domains up as add-on domains, and buy the domain names.

We use Host1099 for our domain names. We're a reseller of one of the big domain name companies and have our prices set to the absolute minimum allowed ($8.99 per year) because we were sick of paying exorbitant fees to renew our domain names elsewhere. (We make almost nothing on each sale. This is provided as a low-cost service to our customers.)

To make your domain names link up to your hosting, you just need to edit the name servers from your Host1099 control panel by clicking "Manage DNS" to match the nameserver settings given to you by a2 Hosting. Click the "Account Details" button when you first login to A2 get those nameserver settings for your server.

Once you set the nameservers on your domain name to match the a2 hosting settings, the update takes anywhere from a few minutes to an hour or two.

With all this in mind, you're prepared to start building as many authority sites as you need. Next, you just need to follow the steps listed in our setup report and on the worksheets you'll print out. We can't wait to see your authority site.

Good luck – you can do this.

And please remember, you're not doing this alone – as a huge bonus with your Authority Site Launchpad VIP Program purchase, you can get our personal help to make sure you're following through on all of our instructions properly. Contact us at 1099support.com to claim your Authority Site Consultation.
