

One Minute Free Traffic 150 Words Per Minute

Bonus Video Transcript

Alright. Hey, I am so excited about this. I'm so pumped about giving you the ability to write 150 words per minute. Just another secret that's going to really change your life and make One Minute Free Traffic that much more valuable to you and your business. Now, how is it done? Well, this warp speed comes from this. The typical typing speed for most people is like 40 to 50 words per minute. Some people, obviously they can type 70, 80 even a hundred words per minute, but mostly 40 to 50 words. I can triple that for you and how do I do it? It's speech to text and I want you to realize that the average human speaking speed is about 150 words per minute. You can capture your thoughts, your ideas, the words by speaking them out and even a few minor flubs and issues and ums and ahs.

It doesn't matter because you're working at such top speed that you're able to capture those thoughts, those ideas and just get them out of your mind. And for most people speaking something, saying something with their voice is so much easier and so much faster than putting fingers on the keyboard. Or certainly tap, tap, tapping away on a tablet or with a phone for example. So speech to text is your new best friend. There are free tools and example of a free tool, uh, speech notes, right? So speech notes. Dot Ceo very often I will, for large files, I'll use Temi, temi.com. They use artificial intelligence, they use AI and it's just 10 cents per minute. So you know, for an entire hour, which is 60 minutes, you're talking about $6 for a transcription. So again, speech to text, you upload that file, you can drop in the MP three, the MP four. You can even drop in a URL for where your video is, um, is posted or hosted. Okay, so this is really powerful, really good. And this allows you to write or to type or generate content at 150 words per minute. This is money in the bank. This is a big deal. So make sure that utilize this one minute traffic. This is how it's done super, super fast.
