

One Minute Free Traffic 3x Fast Fortune

Bonus Video Transcript

I call this the three x fast fortune and it's really about building out your digital real estate empire and this is what it comes down to. You can set up a fan page on topic x so you can go over to Facebook, which is very easy and very free to use. You can set up a fan page or a group on some topic and then you can encourage people to actively talk over on Facebook or on your fan page, and again, I think groups are better. You can do this and then of course go over to Cora and talk about a particular topic, answer things in a specific way, be really intelligent about it and then point people over to your Facebook fan page or again, better is your group. What you do then is you build up your group with your one minute free traffic from Quora and as you've seen in previous videos, it's very easy if you don't have a product of your own to monetize with Clickbank products, one or more Clickbank products, right?

Within Facebook, you're allowed to do that. Especially if you have a group you can control that, control the folks that are coming in and really position yourself in a really intelligent way as the group grows, you know, the, the Sherpa, uh, as, as it were with this topic and with the folks that are in this group. And you can build momentum up. And in fact very importantly is you can cross pollinate because you can take content from within your Facebook fan page or your group and then use that to answer even more questions over on Cora, this is really, really great because you can also utilize this particular approach to build up your email list fast with an autoresponder. Could use get response, you can use a Weber, he can use any sort of auto responder, build up your email list and that is the third pillar.

The first pillar is Quora itself and the assets you're building there. The second pillar is your Facebook real estate, the group or the fan page. And then if you've got that email list, that's the third pillar. And then you can mail people about what you've posted on Quora or more likely you can mail people on the Clickbank products or you can point over to your Facebook group. Now, this all assumes that you don't even really have any, uh, blog set up or any websites set up. If you had other assets, other digital assets set up, that would be your fourth and fifth and sixth pillars of your digital real estate empire. I'm just talking about those three Facebook, Cora and your email. Put it all together and there you go. You can cross promote like crazy and therefore three x fast fortune is yours building out your digital real estate.

But I'm doing this so that you clearly understand that it's not just one way. It's not just from Quora to Facebook over to let's say a Clickbank product. No, no, no, no, no, no, no. Right? Or even onto an email list. You're always cross pollinating. You're always adding value and one transferring value to the other and you'd do this over and over and over again and it compounds you. People create and then they move and then they understand, and then you do the exact same thing with them as part of a community. It's a movement that you can build. The momentum is incredible. I'm really excited for you about this, being able to build your own three x fast fortune.
