

One Minute Free Traffic Social Site

Bonus Video Transcript

Alright. By now I know you've been asking why is this free traffic? Why is it free? Well, listen, this is absolutely ground floor and you get to ride the wave because you're using a social involvement site. Here's what that means. It's not Google, it's not Facebook, it's not LinkedIn. Yes, it's a social site, but it's a certain kind of question and answer. Social involvement site. Okay, here are the facts. It's over 10 years old. It's been backed by over $225 million and very, very serious private investor money. The best of the best. It is a US based company and it's a top 100 website with over 300 million monthly users. Okay? It's not a public company either, which is kind of a big deal. That means that they're doing things that are different than publicly listed companies on like the New York Stock Exchange, for example. So it's absolutely still a ground floor opportunity and that is why it's free traffic because they've made it in such a way, they've set it up in such a way that they want massive engagement and massive volume.

They're willing to take the risk that they can continue to grow this site and grow it like crazy from the involvement of people like you and I socially involved real people going back and forth asking questions and like you and I answering questions in a really, really intelligent way. Now the most important points, really the two most important things, number one as that this is the opportunity to collect, to really enjoy a huge amount of traffic from real people. These are not robots. You're not buying clicks. These are real people who are desperate for answers, who are seeking out answers to very, very everyday questions and then you're able to deliver answers in such a way that you direct people to your websites and you can make money as long as that traffic is flowing, which is very, very easy. That's the first point. Second point is it, the business is not going away. They've got hundreds of millions of dollars in funding. They've been around for 10 years, they've got a track record and they are well funded. So they've got money in the bank and they're willing to invest it. And you and I. So that's why this traffic is free, and that's why you need to just really embrace this and love it and use it for maximum benefit to you and your business.
