Perry Hall punishers capture championship banner

A total team effort contributed to the cause as the Perry Hall Punishers topped the field of the 14 teams at the Hawks Invitational Tournament and took home the championship banner.

"Every single wrestler we entered scored team points, which is the goal at every event, and that effort helped accomplish the goal," coaches said.

The Punishers are primed and ready for the end-of-year tournaments which will begin with the MJWL dual meet championships on Feb. 23 and continue to the State Championships on March 9.
