

2009 GHBL ALL STAR GAME

The 2009 GHBL All Star Game took place Saturday July 18th, 2009 at Nelson Park in Burlington. The players took the field at 4pm to a slightly overcast sky. The teams were drafted by the 2008 Tier 2 Champion West Mountain Tigers and the 2008 Tier 3 Champion Burlington Terrapins.

All star nominees were divided into 2 sides, an East team and a West team. The Tigers coaches won first selection and were designated the visiting team for the game. The team they selected became known as the West All Stars. The Terrapins coaches therefore managed and selected the East All Stars.

From the first pitch of the game the fans knew they were in for a slug-fest. No pitcher was safe as a soft breeze blowing out and some damn good hitters created what is likely the highest scoring game in GHBL history. Multiple home runs were hit including 2 by West MVP Russ Albers and 1 by East MVP Braden Bishop. The final score was:

East All Stars 34 West All Stars 19

(The East team)
