

Question: What age does a child need to be in order to participate in CYA basketball?

Answer: Kids are placed on teams based on the grade they are in at school, not age. CYA basketball is open for kids in 1st grade through 9th grade. Children in kindergarten are also eligible, but only after attending try-outs at which time the coaches will evaluate their ability.

Question: When is the last day I can sign up my child?

Answer: No sign-ups will be acceptable after tryouts.

Question: When will the regular season start?

Answer: The first game will typically be the first or second week in December.

Question: How many games will be played?

Answer: Typically, the regular season is comprised of ten games starting in December and ending in February.

Question: When is practice?

Answer: Practice is scheduled by the head-coach based on gym availability. Available gym space usually allows for one to two practices per week. Each practice is typically 1 hr to 1 ½ hr in duration.

Question: When are regular season games?

Answer: All games will be played on Saturday at various gym locations throughout Crowley and Burleson.

Question: What uniform will parents have to supply?

Answer: CYA will provide a reversible game jersey. Parents will be responsible for shorts, tennis shoes, socks and a practice basketball (head-coach will advise on basketball requirements).

Question: Will there be refunds if I decide not to play?

Answer: Refunds are possible prior to the start of the season. If uniforms have been ordered at the time a refund request is received, the price of the uniform will be deducted from the registration fee and a refund check will be issued for the difference. NO refunds will be issued after the season's first game. All refund requests will need to be submitted to the Basketball Director in writing detailing the reason(s) for the refund.
