

ANGELS WIN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP !!!!!!!

A great stadium, perfect weather (finally), and a great game was all part of the C.P.O.T league championship. The Lawnton Angels downed the Mechanicsburg Cubs 3-1 to clinch the title in only their second season. As expected, an outstanding pitchers duel was on tap, and Cubs pitchers Donovan Quinn and Daryle Gavlick, along with Justin Stewart of the Angels each turned in performances to be proud of! The Cubs struck first, as Craig Deiter was driven in by Pat Mowery in the top of the opening frame. The Angels answered in the bottom of the second, when Adam Reedy led off with a booming double to right-center, and was then driven in by Bill Bratten's triple through the left-center field gap. After a few quiet innings on both sides, Donny Wells sparked a sixth inning rally by hustling out a ball in the infield, forcing an error with his speed. Doug Keller walked, and Justin Stewart then laced a double inside the left-field line to score both Wells and Keller. The Angels defense tightened up to run out the clock on the Cubs, and the battery tandem of Stewart and Kevin Westra closed the deal, finishing the afternoon with 12 strikeouts.

The Lawnton Angels would like to thank Sovereign Bank Stadium for the accommodations, the league for its support (Kevin Lauer - President, and Chris Schick - Vice President), The Cubs for an outstanding game (Jon Debernardis - Manager), and our many friends and family members who made the trip to the game and came out every Sunday during the 6-month season. Looking forward to 2010!
