

PLAYOFF ROUND 1 - Angels get past the Phillies in 11

Despite effective pitching and some great defense by the Phillies, the Angels managed to get the late inning victory by a 3-2 score to move on to the American League Championship.

The pitching duo of Doug Keller and Justin

Stewart was solid once again, and Mike Hopwood plated Bill Bratten with the winning run in the bottom of the 11th to clinch the W.

Next up - Red Sox!
