

Stewart Rolls; Angel bats come alive late to down the Sox!

The Angels maintained command of the American League with a 6-1 victory over the RedSox. Justin Stewart fashioned a 4-hit, 12-strikeout mound performance, and the boys scored 4 runs in the 8th inning to ice the game. Mike Hopwood contributed 2 doubles to the cause, and Mike Herman added another with a long, high drive over the right fielder. Tim Drazba launched a booming triple off the bottom of the centerfield fence, and Bill Bratten also tripled to left-center with the bases loaded to drive in 3 runs, and scored from third on a fielder's choice. Adam Reedy walked twice, was hit by a pitch, and scored a run, while Mike Moglia and Doug Keller singled two times a piece and Matt Fawber and Justin Stewart each added a one-bagger. The defense was solid once again in an errorless effort, highlighted by Kevin Westra throwing out another wanna-be base stealer, and an impressive long run and catch in right field by Donny Wells. Summary: A TEAM effort!
