

Angels fall short against the Diamondbacks

Doug Keller's courageous pitching performance went for naught as the Angels came up a little shy during the night tilt in Dillsburg. The boys tried to work a little magic late in the game to help celebrate Mike Ragan's 50th birthday, but couldn't get it done. It was, however, decided that all the boys will chip in to purchase a new jersey for Mike with the number "50" on the back. Next up: - A double header against the Phillies.....
