2-run double by Cascaden seals Troy win

After missing out on a chance with runners on second and third and two outs, Dylan Cascaden wasn't about to let the same thing happen again.

Luckily for the Trojans, the senior leadoff hitter got another shot.

"Earlier in the game, I came up in the same situation and grounded out to the shortstop," Cascaden said. "I went to the dugout knowing I'd have at least one more at-bat. My mind was set on that next at-bat."

With the score tied 2-2, Cascaden blasted a 3-1 pitch to the center field fence on two hops, plating the go-ahead and a key insurance run in the bottom of the sixth inning as the Trojans rallied and then held on in the seventh for a 4-3 victory over Springfield Friday at Market Street Field.

Ryan Lavy tied the game at 2-2 earlier in the bottom of the sixth with an RBI single that

Big 5th lifts Wildcats past Trojans

BY COLIN FOSTER

When Troy finally got something going offensively in the bottom of the seventh, the deficit was too large to overcome.

In the end, a seven-run fifth inning by Springfield made all the difference as the Wildcats beat the Trojans 8-4 in Greater Western Ohio Conference crossover play Friday at Market Street Diamond in Troy.

The Wildcats plated the first run of the game in the fourth, but the wheels really fell off for the Trojans in the fifth. In that inning, Springfield batted through the order and had six hits — with the big ones coming in the form of a two-run single by Parker Stewart and a three-run double by Bri Amburgey with two outs.

Had it not been for that inning, the Trojans very well could have walked away with a 'W' in this one.

Mackesy fans 10 in 10-3 CCC win

Staff Reports

WEST ALEXANDRIA — Six runs in the top of the seventh may have taken the edge off.

But Damien Mackesy was just fine without them.

The Miami East freshman struck out 10 and gave up four hits in a complete-game victory at Twin Valley South Friday in Cross County Conference play.

"Damien pitched really well," Miami East coach Barry Coomes said. "For a freshman to do that in a conference game, to strike out 10 and throw a complete game, that's a good deal. He's got good composure for a freshman."

The game was tight throughout, too, with the Vikings (10-2, 6-0 CCC) breaking a tie game with two runs in the top of the fifth to go up 4-2. Twin Valley South made it a one-run game going into the final inning, though — but Miami East plated six in the seventh to erase any kind of pressure.

Garrett Mitchell was 2 for 2 and hit his first homer of the season, Alex Brewer was 2 for 4 with a double and Colton McKinney was 2 for 3 in the game.

Miami East hosts Cedarville today in a doubleheader.

Nats blank Reds, 1-0

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jordan Zimmermann was terrific in his second complete game of the season and the Washington Nationals limited the Cincinnati Reds to one hit for the second straight game in a 1-0 victory on Friday night.

Zimmermann (4-1) struck out four and walked one while improving to 3-0 with a 1.36 ERA in five career games against Cincinnati. The right-hander needed only 91 pitches to record his third career complete game.

It was the first time the Reds managed just one hit in consecutive games since July 5-6, 1900, against Brooklyn, according to research by the Elias Sports Bureau that the team provided. The Houston Astros from Sept. 14-15, 2008, were the last team with such a streak.
