Their first tournament win in four years. Their first sectional championship in even longer. A huge upset over one of the top-ranked teams in the state.

One nightmarishly bad inning isn't enough to taint all of the Troy Trojans' accomplishments this season. The worst it could do was put an end to it.

After Troy had roared back to take the lead in its Division I district championship game on a two-run double by Ian Nadolny in the top of the fifth, the wheels came off in the bottom of the inning as it handed Lakota East six unearned runs after an uncharacteristically poor frame defensively, and the Thunderhawks took advantage in a 7-3 victory at Western Hills High School's gorgeous field.

Lakota East (26-3) scored its six runs in the bottom of the fifth on five walks, three costly errors and only two hits.

MASON — Tippecanoe didn't know much about Alter heading into Saturday's Division II district title game.

"The big thing is we never see them (Alter) because they play a lot down south," Tippecanoe coach Bruce Cahill said. "But they have a lot of seniors, I think they start seven. They had their No. 1 pitcher on the mound. They are a good team, so we expected a battle."

And a battle is exactly what the Red Devils got.

A better memory

Miami East got a chance to do something not many teams do.

Overwrite a bad memory with a better one.

Senior pitcher Paige Kiesewetter scattered five hits and a walk over eight shutout innings, but Madison's Katie Sturgis matched her — through seven. But sophomore Kris Bigelow belted a bases-loaded double with one out in the top of the eighth, and the Vikings walked away with a 2-0 victory in the Division III district title game Saturday at Tippecanoe.

The Vikings (23-6) went extra innings in last year's district title game on the same field, as well, falling to Felicity Franklin.

"I definitely realized we were in the same position as last year," Kiesewetter said. "We wanted to make a better memory this
