2019 Tournament Policies

Effective January 1, 2019

Richmond County Tournaments

Richmond County Youth Complex (RCYC)

General Information & Policies

Check In

Managers must check in at the complex press box in front of field 1 at least one half hour prior to their first game of the tournament.

Insurance

Each team must have proof of insurance with them at all times. The insurance certificate must have Richmond County Baseball Club and Richmond County Youth Complex, 1400 Travis Ave., Staten Island, NY 10314 listed as certificate holder. A copy must be emailed to christina@rcbclub.com prior to the tournament.

Rosters

Rosters must be submitted for each tournament via the method prescribed for that event. A player can be on the roster for two different age groups in a tournament (within tournament age guidelines), but not on multiple teams within the same age group.

Umpires

RC Tournaments will provide 2 umpires for each game in the tournament.

Baseballs/Equipment

Game balls will be provided. Teams are responsible for their own practice balls and all baseball equipment such as bats, helmets, gloves, catcher's gear and first aid.

Batting Cages/Bullpens

Use of the batting cages and bullpens will be on a first come basis. Metal cleats are not allowed in the batting cages. Please be courteous to other teams waiting to use the facilities.

Pre-Game Warm Up

There is no infield practice on the fields prior to the games. When warming up in the outfield, teams are asked to stay 10 feet inside the foul lines.

Parking

Free parking is available within the Richmond County Youth Complex for all tournament games. Parking is at your own risk. The parking spaces on the outside of the complex fence on Travis Ave are reserved for tournament umpires only.

Concessions

The concession stand will be open during all tournaments. No outside food or coolers (except one team cooler) are permitted. Team coaches are to advise their players' parents of this policy.

First Aid

First aid equipment will be onsite for all tournaments however coaches are encouraged to also bring their own first aid kits.

Awards

A team trophy will be presented to the first place team and runner up. Individual awards may also be presented on a selective tournament basis.

Conduct

The Tournament Committee or Tournament Director reserves the right to eject any person from the Richmond County Youth Complex or any tournament facility for unruly or unsportsmanlike behavior. Any coach or player that is ejected from a game may be subject to suspension upon review by the Tournament Committee. Any coach or player who is ejected for a second time during the tournament may be restricted from participating for the remainder of the tournament, and may be prohibited from participating in future tournaments. If a parent or fan is abusive or violates RC Tournament policy, they can be asked to leave the complex. Failure to do so may result in their team forfeiting the game.

Team Withdrawals

RC Tournaments requires that all requests by registered teams for withdrawal be made in writing at least 30 days prior to the start of the tournament. Requests should be emailed to christina@rcbclub.com. Any cancellation made by a team or its representatives within 30 days of the tournament will result in the loss of their initial deposit. Any exceptions can only be approved by the Executive Tournament Director.

Inclement Weather

If there is inclement weather, we will attempt to stay as close as possible to the original game schedule and tournament format. All scheduling changes will be posted on the tournament website. It is the team's responsibility to check and make sure they are aware of any schedule changes.

We also send out weather alerts and schedule changes via cell phone text messages, utilizing the RainedOut system. Text 84483 to subscribe. Managers will be provided with the specific text message subscription code for their tournament. This should be shared with players and parents so they can also receive alerts directly.
