MIDDLE ATLANTIC REGION HISTORY

Babe Ruth Baseball was founded in 1951 in Hamilton Township, a suburb of Trenton, New Jersey, to provide wholesome amateur baseball for 13, 14 and 15-year-old players. It all started out with a four-team league that was designed to follow Little League Baseball, which at that time was only involved with the 5-12 age categories.

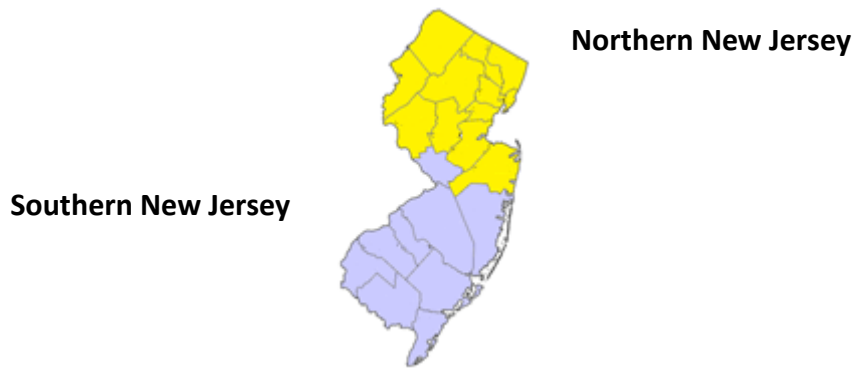

In 1952 the Middle Atlantic Region of Babe Ruth Baseball was established with the formation of a division for 13-15 year-olds. The Middle Atlantic Region was made up of Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Virginia, West Virginia and Ontario, Canada.

In 1965 New York was divided into two “states” – Upstate New York and Metro New York.

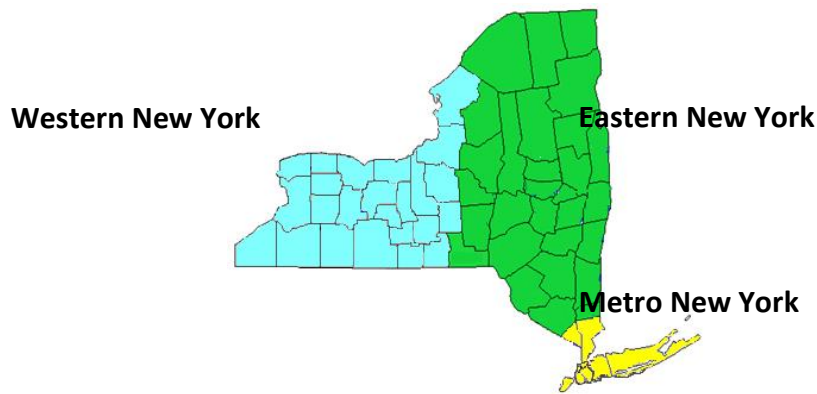

In 1968 New Jersey was divided into two “states” – Northern New Jersey and Southern New Jersey.

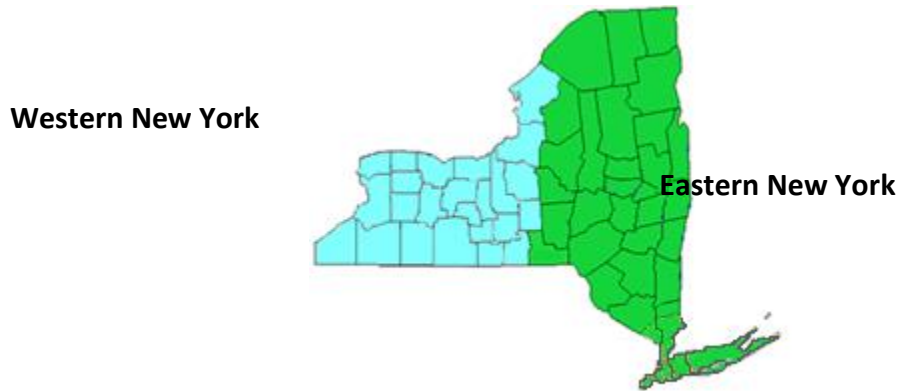

In 1970 West Virginia was moved into the Ohio Valley Region and Virginia was moved into the Southeast Region.

In 1987 another “state” was added when Upstate New York was further divided into Western New York and Eastern New York.

In 2016 Babe Ruth Leagues, Inc. combined Metro New York and Eastern New York into one state.

In 2018 Babe Ruth Leagues, Inc. setup a pilot program to divide Eastern New York into North ENY and South ENY. That was made permanent in 2020 with the states being designated as Eastern New York and Southern New York

ADDING THE YOUNGER KIDS

In 1982 Babe Ruth Leagues, Inc. created the Bambino Division for players 5-12 years of age. In 2000 that division was renamed to the Cal Ripken Division of Babe Ruth Baseball.

In 2006 Pennsylvania split into two "states" -- Western PA and Metro PA -- for the Cal Ripken Division age groups. The names have since been changed to Northwest PA and Southeast PA.

Today the Middle Atlantic Region for the 5-12 divisions consists of Delaware, Eastern New York, Southern New York, Maryland, Metro New York, Northern New Jersey, Northwest Pennsylvania, Southeast Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey, Western New York, and Ontario, Canada.

Today there are over 100,000 boys and girls playing Babe Ruth Baseball in the Middle Atlantic Region.

From 1972, running for about ten years, the French's Pennant Awards competitions were held. The R.T. French's Pennant Award program was a Run-Hit-Throw Contest held each year for 13-15 year old. It began as a local league competition which later had state competitions with the state winners going to a regional competition. The three-phase competition included speed in base running, solo fungo hitting for distance and accuracy in throwing a baseball. The player with the highest combined score for the three phases was declared the winner for that age group.

SPORTSMANSHIP AWARDS

From 1991, running for a few years, the Babe Ruth Baseball gave out Sportsmanship Awards to 13-15 league participants. The awards were sponsored by Leaf, Inc., makers of the PayDay candy bar and Rain-Blo Gum. Each league was given the opportunity to honor the one player in their league who best exemplified the Sportsmanship Code of Babe Ruth Baseball.

The Babe Ruth League Tournament trail has four levels:

There is an entire tournament trail for six age groups: 10-year-olds, 12-year-olds, 13-year-olds, 14-year-olds, 13-15-year-olds, and 16-18-year-old.

From 1983 through 1999 the 12-year-old tournament was known as the Bambino tournament. From 2000 through 2006 it was known as the Cal Ripken Division tournament. In 2007 the age group was divided into two tournaments – one played on a 60-foot diamond and one played on a 70-foot diamond. They are now known as the Cal Ripken Major/60 and the Cal Ripken Major/70 tournaments.

In addition, there are regional tournaments for three other age groups whose winners do not advance to a world series: 8-year-olds, 9-year-olds, and 11-year-olds. From 1999 through 2007 there was only one 11-year-old tournament. From 2008 through 2015 there were two 11-year-old tournaments -- one played on a 60-foot diamond and one played on a 70-foot diamond.

The 11/60 was discontinued in 2016.

From 1985 through 2009 a 16-year-old regional was held but this has been discontinued.
