

TeamLinkt (TL) OSCCSPL Website - Cheat Sheet

- You can access our new website at: <https://leagues.teamlinkt.com/osccspl>
- Our new website has a “similar” look to League Lineup (LL), however some information, e.g. Playoffs, has been setup differently or is in different spots. Also some LL things, e.g. a separate Headlines area with older information, needs further setup testing.
- Our new Welcome page uses one (of six) possible TL layout templates. Our starting template should show you the next 5 scheduled league games (on a desktop or laptop screen) under the "Welcome Teams Schedule Scores Standings Documents" menu bar, and above the "2026 SEASON UPDATE - ..." information.
- If you select Teams, also select the desired Division, otherwise you should see double the team names because of the Regular and Tournament (our Playoffs) team name assignments. Note: TL recommended that we use their Tournament approach for our Playoffs because of our strict round-robin, weekly format, at least for this season.

After selecting Teams and a specific Division, you can select Team or Schedule for a specific team. Team shows Last Game results and Next Game info. Schedule shows the remaining Regular games for that team or, if no Regular games remain (i.e. D1), a descending list of completed/cancelled Regular games, with scores.

- If you select Schedule, and select All or a specific Division, you should see the Regular season games still to be played for All or one Division or, if no Regular games remain (e.g. D1), a descending list of completed/cancelled Regular games, with scores.
If you select the Thursday D1 Playoffs sub-menu under Schedule, you should see the scheduled D1 playoff games under the Pools - Schedule option.
Scores will show after the games have completed and results entered.
Selecting the Pools - Teams option, will provide the current D1 Playoffs Standings.

Note: Tuesday Playoffs and Thursday D2 Playoffs sub-menus will be created soon after their final Regular games are played and final Regular rankings are confirmed.

- If you select Scores, you should see the completed/cancelled Regular season games to-date, with scores, All or by Division.
- If you select Standings, you should see the Regular season standings by selected Division.
- If you select Documents, you should see links to current pdfs of our 2026 Rules and Divisional Rosters, as well as a current version of this document.
- Note: The Contact Us link at the bottom of each page is not working, at this time.
