Headline: Dionne's rallies to win in the 7th

Summary: As the score would suggest, this was not a defensive battle as everyone had trouble in the field. Slugfests are the toughest to do a write up on. Pine Street started off scoring 4 runs on 2 triples down the right field line by Kevin Simoneau and Jerome St. Germain. Dionne's scored 5 in the bottom of the 1st on 7 consecutive singles and a big bases loaded single from Jeff Hendrick to drive in 2 runs. In the Pine Street 2nd inning, they scored 5 runs on 6 consecutive singles after 2 outs. In the bottom of the 2nd, Dave Sullivan launched a double over the leftfielder's head to key a 5 run inning to tie the score at 9-9. Pine Street scored 3 runs in the 4th on 5 hits and big Gary Cook single that was fair by a foot down the left field line. Pine Street scored 5 runs in their 5th with 6 consecutive singles and an opposite field single from Don Clark. Dionne's rallied for 3 runs in their 5th keyed by a Dave Sullivan double. Dionne's scored 3 in the 6th keyed by doubles from Paul Doherty and Perry Delisle. Dionne's rallied for 4 runs in the bottom of the 7th with misplays, squib hits and a swinging bunt single by Gary Schoolcraft that rolled about 2 feet. The game ended with an infield fly that was dropped.

What's the call, Ump? Ted is batting out of order and gets a base hit to left. Sam is up next and the first pitch is an illegal pitch. The defense then realizes that Ted batted out of order and reports it to the plate umpire.

The defense can no longer appeal batting out of order since the infraction was not reported to the umpire prior to the next pitch legal or illegal.
