Let's post this again

Please remember.

1. We are old men
2. We are playing a kid's game
3. The coaches are volunteers
4. The umpires are doing the best they can
5. Throwing your glove and cursing doesn't help your team field any better.
6. The only thing that complaining will change is how others feel about you.
7. You aren't getting a call to play in the major leagues

What's the Call Ump? Brendan hits a gapper and is going for two. As he approaches 2nd base he is obstructed by the 2nd base person. The throw from the outfield gets away from the shortstop. Brendan picks himself up and heads for 3rd where he is thrown out.

In the ump's judgment Brendan would have been safe at 2nd and no further had the obstruction not occurred, but he forfeited this protection when he tried to advance to 3rd. Therefore he is out at 3rd and the obstruction is nullified. (Rule 8, Section 5, B3)

If the obstructed runner is put out after passing the base which would have been reached had there been no obstruction or advanced beyond the two bases where the obstruction occurred. Effect: a The ball remains live. b The obstructed runner is called out.

Trivia Answer:

"When Neil Armstrong first set foot on the moon, he and all the space scientists were puzzled by an unidentifiable white object. I knew immediately what it was. That was a home run ball hit off me in 1937 by Jimmie Foxx." -- Lefty Gomez
