Headline: M&N wins slugfest

Summary: It will be a cold day in June before that happens. Well, it truly was a cold day in June with temps in the low 50s and drizzle. M&N scored 4 runs in their 1st inning on 6 singles and clutch hit from Joe Lamy. Pine Street rallied for 5 runs in the top of the 2nd keyed by a monster shot by Gary Cook that sailed over the leftfielder's head. M&N picked up where they left off in the 2nd inning scoring 5 runs on 6 hits and big double from Bruce Botelho. Pine Street scored 3 runs in the 3rd keyed by a Mike McDevitt that threaded the gap in right center. M&N scored 5 runs in their 3rd inning on 7 hits and screaming line drive double to center field by Don Kasper. Johnny Peterman made a nice "make it look difficult" catch in rightfield in the 4th. Pine Street scored 3 in their 5th with big singles from Don Clark and Greg Gougian, but had a runner erased trying to advance. Joe Lamy made an interesting catch in the 6th on a liner that went off his glove and he ended up catching the ball behind his back.

Jimmy Edwards got his 1000th hit in this league joining Jerry Ferullo, Danny Birck, Bob Lamontagne and the late Dick Gillespie. As luck would have it, the other 3 living members of the 1000 hit club were in attendance or playing in this game.

Headline: IMEC survives 7th inning scare.

Summary: So much for a nice comfortable lead. IMEC has the reputation of coughing up huge leads as the curse of Geoff Geoffrion lives on! In the 1st inning, IMEC scored 4 runs keyed by an Austin "Hot Wheels" Spinella triple. In the IMEC 2nd inning, they scored 5 runs on 8 consecutive singles with Danny Birck driving in the 5th run. Coleman scored 5 in their 2nd inning with a big Dan Bernier single. IMEC opened up a commanding 14-5 lead in their 3rd inning, scoring 5 runs keyed by a rocket triple to right field by Jack Gilhooly. Coleman scored 3 runs in their 4th when Joe Richards, Bill Papa and Mark Tremblay all singled and scored. IMEC scored 5 runs in the 5th after 2 outs with a two-run HR from Gerry Vye! In the 7th, Coleman sent 14 batters to the plate, scored 9 runs on 9 hits, and Coleman had 2 runners on when the last batter was retired.

For you that dont remember, Geoff Geoffrion was the coach for IMEC for a number of years and IMEC was famous for 7th inning implosions to lose the game. It almost happened again.

What's the call ump? Runners on 1st and 3rd with one out. Batter he's a long fly to centerfield and the runner on 3rd base waits for the catch and scores. Meanwhile, the runner on 1st thought there was 2 outs and is halfway to third base, and the ball comes back to the infield, and the ball is thrown to 1st base for the 3rd out. The defense claims the run doesn't count. What's the call?

In this case, it's a timing play. If the runner on 3rd scores before the final out, the run counts.
