“We do not stop playing because we grow old.
We grow old because we stop playing.”

What life throws at you - you just have to learn how to hit it, which is a baseball metaphor. The ball's outside, you hit to the right. You don't let them go by. - Billy Crystal

Headline: Arts wins in bottom of the 9th

Summary: Baby, you can drive my car. Fan favorite Jerry Ferullo was stuck in Rte. 495 traffic and never arrived. In the Arts 2nd inning, they scored 3 runs on back-to-back doubles from Rusty and Mark Cockroft. Kittles scored 5 runs in the 6th the hard way with 8 singles and a big 2-out single from Cam Boyd. That 7-6 was short lived as Arts scored 5 in their half of the 6th tallying 7 singles in a row without recording an out by big singles from Mark Cockroft and Rick Norton. In the 9th, Kittles Cam Boyd's single keyed a 3-run inning. In the Kittle 9th they scored 3 keyed by doubles from Bob Lamontagne, Mike Perrone and John Brun to take a 13-12 lead! But in the bottom of the 9th, Rick Norton hit a gapper triple to right to knock in a run and Mark Lara was hero to drive in the winning run.

What's the call, Ump? This play recently occurred. Runners on 1st and 2nd with one out. Batter hits a humpback liner to Humble Mike at SS. He takes a step to his left and ball bounces off his glove. The runners take off to next base. The runner on first barrels into Humble Mike after he has stepped on 2nd base and is trying to throw to 3rd. The throw goes wild, the runner that was on 2nd runs home and the batter runs all the way to third. The defensive team claims interference. What's the call?

The umpire ruled an interference and when this happens, it's the runner and the lead runner that are declared out. The rule is its 3 outs and no run is tallied.
