Headline: Arts win slugfest

Summary: 66 hits in this contest. Safe to say both teams had tough mornings on the field. IMEC started the scoring pasting 4 runs on the scoreboard keyed by back-to-back doubles from John Remillard and Jack Gilhooly. But today Arts was not to be denied replying with 5 runs in their second inning with 7 consecutive singles and clutch single from Les Hess and 5 runs in their 3rd inning on 8 consecutive hits including a double from Mark Cockroft. In the 4th, Arts scored 3 runs when Jerry Ferullo, Jim Edwards and Mark Lara all singled and scored. In the IMEC 4th, they scored 5 runs on 7 consecutive singles and big hits from Bob Feldmann and Ken Bourque. In the bottom of the 5th, Jim Muller toasted the outfielder playing a little too shallow with a 3-run HR! In the top 6th, Arts scored 4 runs keyed by a Rick Norton double. In the bottom of the 6th, IMEC replied with 5 runs keyed by doubles from Ken Bourque and Johnny "Stone shoes" Peterman. After all that early scoring, both teams were quiet in the 8th and 9th.

What's the call ump? Runners on 2nd and 3rd with 2 outs. Gimpy Gus with the bad knee is up and forgets to ask for a runner. On the first pitch Gus lines a single to left field and both runners score. Meanwhile Gus is admiring the hit from the batter's box and hasn't moved. Diligent Dan the Captain of the defensive team orders a throw to first base and Gus is declared out. Do the runs count since they occurred before the final out?

In this case, there is a force out at 1st base. Those 2 runs do not count.

Trivia Answer

All of a sudden, I'm in the major leagues and we're traveling from town to town. I see the other players dressing differently every day. I've got only one suit, and I keep wearing it over and over. I'm really embarrassed. - Al Kaline
