Headline: The Pine Street Train keeps on chuggin'

Summary: Pine Street has won 5 in a row! Pine Street left their cars swinging their bats and scored 5 in the 1st inning keyed by an off field triple by Don Clark. Kittle replied scoring 5 runs of their own sparked by doubles from Mike "Mensa" Smith. Tom Boland, and Paul "Stylin" Stys. In the 6th inning, Wally said, "the roof is about to cave in." He was off by an inning, the roof caved in for Kittle in the 7th when Pine Street scored 5 runs keyed by an opposite field double by Gary Johnson that landed just fair. Wily Kevin Simoneau held 3 Kittles batters hitless and scattered 7 hits after the 1st inning.

Headline: Dionne survives spirited Joks comeback to win.

Summary: In the top of the 1st, Bob Wogan made an outstanding running catch in deep left center to take away extra bases. Dionne's scored 3 runs in their 3rd inning keyed by a Mike "St. Michael" McDevitt double. Steve Trubacz made an excellent catch on a screaming liner. Dionne's scored 3 runs in their 4th inning keyed by singles from Bob "the emergency starter" Royce and Lee Hess. Paul Berard made a tough catch in right field. Perry Delisle made a nice over the shoulder catch wandering out to catch pop fly. Bob Royce had Joks limited to 6 hits until Joks woke from their slumber and scored 6 runs in their 6th sparked by a Dave Ciampa triple. In the bottom of the 7th, Kevin Simoneau blasted a 2-run HR. 4 Joks hitters went hitless

Headline: Coleman wins barnburner

Summary: Coleman scored 3 runs in their first at bats when Ed "Captain Hamstring" Patterson blasted a triple to left center. Coleman scored 5 runs in their 3rd when George Birmbas toasted the right centerfield for playing too shallow for big double. Arts scored 3 in their 4th inning keyed by opposite field singles from Steve Kelliher and Rick "Dr. Evil" Norton. Coleman rallied for 5 runs in their 6th inning on 8 hits and big double from Joe Richards. In the bottom of the 6th, Arts scored 3 runs when Steve "The White Tornado" Kelliher's liner to the gap rolled out of reach of the right centerfielder for a HR. Had the throw to the plate been accurate, it would have been a double play, but it was errant. Arts rallied for 3 runs in the bottom of the 7th with big singles from Mike Barnhart, Steve Kelliher and Rick Norton and left the bases loaded when the last batter popped out.

Headline: Visionworks outpowers Kittle

Summary: The Forest Fires up in Canada turned the sky a peculiar shade of pink, and it was like playing in the evening for all that played on this day. Visionworks scored 5 in the 1st with some timely hitting and some questionable fielding from Kittles. Paul Nalette made a nice catch on a hooking liner to right field and ended up on his knees. Kittles scored 4 in the bottom of the 1st keyed by a mighty John Brun triple to right center. Visionworks scored 5 in their 2nd inning when table setters Leo Melanson and Billy Simmons singled and scored on a Dave Sullivan double. In the bottom of the 4th Kittles scored 4 runs keyed by Kevin Simoneau's triple to deep centerfield. In the 5th, Jerry Lazaris made a nice leaping (about 3 inches?) grab of liner. Visionworks turned a double play in the 6th to escape trouble. In the bottom of the 7th, Kittles scored 4 runs when Rusty, Kevin Simoneau and John Brun all tripled and scored. The game ended on a big double play.

What's the call Ump? This recently happened in a game. Top of the inning, and Able is supposed to bat. Instead, Baker grabs a bat and hits the first pitch into right field for a hit. The scorekeeper says, wait a minute here, Able was supposed to hit. A brouhaha follows. What's the call?

What happened and what was supposed to happen was 2 different things. They ruled Baker out and sent Able to the plate, skipped Baker's turn and went to Charlie.

What is supposed to happen is leave Baker on first and rule Able out. Able loses an at-bat. With Senior Softball you eventually see everything.

Headline: Coleman tops Pine Street

Summary: Another gloves optional games as both teams had trouble catching and throwing the ball. In the top of the 5th, Coleman broke a 3-3 by scoring 5 run on 7 hits and a big double from Dan Bernier. Pine Street replied with 4 runs in the bottom of the 5th keyed by doubles from Kevin Simonaeu and Luis Arzeno. Headline: Dionne's wins Barnburner

Summary: Perhaps the best game of the year and what might be a preview of the final 2 for the championship. 56 hits and some mighty struggles to catch liners. Dionne's scored 4 runs in the 1st keyed by singles from Del Patton and Mike Bahia. Joks replied with 5 runs in the bottom of the 1st keyed by a Ken McConnell bases-loaded double. Dionne's scored 5 runs in their 4th on 7 singles and clutch hitting from Rick Norton and Dave Sullivan. In the bottom of the 5th, Joks scored 5 runs keyed by doubles from Bill Moccia and Rusty. Dionne's scored 5 runs in their 7th, sending all 11 batters to the place and some timely hits from Buddy Wood, Bob Royce and Steve Trubacz. Joks scored 5 runs in the bottom of the 7th with big hits from Jack Gilhooly and Dave Ciampa, but they had a runner erased trying to score from 2nd base. The game ended when Steve "the white unicorn" Kelliher snared a hot liner at SS and tagged the base to double off the runner for the final out.

Headline: Coleman rallies in the 7th to pull one out of the fire

Summary: Coleman took a 3-1 lead in the 1st keyed by a Bob Lamontagne triple that split the outfielders in rightfield. In the 2nd inning, there was some controversy as Dionne's batted out of order and had a batter ruled out. It didn't matter as they scored 5 runs anyway with 8 hits and big double to centerfield by Bill Moccia. Coleman tied the game at 7-7 in their 4th inning with a big George Birmbas double and some shaky Dionne's fielding. In the 4th inning, Dionne's scored 3 runs with 4 singles in row, Joe Lamy, Bill Moccia, Buddy Wood and Bob Royce. In the 6th inning, Dionne's took a commanding 13-8 lead, scoring 3 runs keyed by a Paul "the chemist" Doherty double. And that sets of the cave-in that occurred in the bottom of the 7th. Coleman continued to load the bases when Dionne's couldn't record a putout. With 2 outs and the bases loaded, Bob Lamontagne hit a hooking liner to Shortstop. If he catches the ball, its game over, but the ball slipped out of his glove and trickled into short leftfield and 2 runners scored. In the 5th George Birmbas made a nice catch on a liner that sent him to his knees. A terrific comeback for Coleman who has become the team no one wants to play.

Trivia Answer:
I'll bet you didn't guess Lindy McDaniel

Some of my greatest memories were on a little league field. We didn't even have any uniforms. - Goose Gossage
