“We do not stop playing because we grow old.
We grow old because we stop playing.”

I don't want to play golf. When I hit a ball, I want someone else to go chase it. - Rogers Hornsby

What's the call, ump? Ted is batting out of order and gets a base hit to left. Sam is up next, and the first pitch is an illegal pitch. The defense then realizes that Ted batted out of order and reports it to the plate umpire.

The defense can no longer appeal batting out of order since the infraction was not reported to the umpire prior to the next pitch legal or illegal.

Headline: M&N edges Family in 7.

Summary: The temperature was already 94 at game time, and it was Sunny and sticky. Both teams agreed to not start any inning past 10:30 am, and this game ended early. M&N scored in all the innings they batted. In the bottom of the 1st, M&N scored 5 runs keyed by a Mike Bahia double. In the Family 2nd inning, Family scored 3 runs keyed by a Jeff Hendrick triple but had a massive brain cramp on the bases as 2 runners were erased trying to advance to an extra bases on the same single. In the M&N 3rd inning, they scored 3 runs keyed by a Charlie Mooradian single, and that inning ended with a great catch by Rick Tessier saving 2 runners from scoring. Family scored 4 runs in their 4th keyed by a Del Patton double. M&N scored 4 in their 4th keyed by another Mike Bahia double, and that inning ended with a nifty 11-3-2 double play when the runner at 3rd thought he could beat the throw home. In the top of the 7th, Family loaded the bases with 2 outs, and the last batter was retired on a great play from Jerry Lazaris.

Headline: Kittle ties game in 9th.

Summary: It was hot and miserable, and no one was able to drive the ball with any authority. Coleman scored 3 in their 1st at-bat keyed by a George Abood humpback liner over the Shortstop's head. In the Coleman 6th, they scored 3 runs keyed by an Ed Longo single, but left the bases loaded and it came back to bite them. After scattering 7 hits in their first 6 innings. Kittles got 7 hits in the 7th inning and had doubles from Dave Ciampa, Ken McConnell and Rich Delue. Kittles scored 4 in their 8th on 6 consecutive singles with a John Walter single landing just inside the right field foul line in short right field. With 2 outs in the 9th, Mike Perrone's liner to centerfield ended up being a triple after the outfielder misplayed it, Dave Ciampa's single tied the score. And when the next batter struck out, the game was declared a tie.

Trivia answer:

"The first principle of contract negotiations is don't remind them of what you did in the past - tell them what you're going to do in the future." – Stan Musial

"Next, an example of the very same procedure when done correctly."

Meanwhile at the South Pole ...
