Facility Usage and Regulations

Terms of Use:

The use of the church grounds and facilities are at the discretion of the pastor and the Board of Trustees. This agreement grants personal license only, does not create a tenancy and may not be assigned to or used by any other organization or person.

The licensee agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Church, its officers, members, clergy, staff, agents and volunteers from all claims, losses, costs, obligations and liabilities for injuries to any persons or for damages to or loss of property of any kind in any way arising out of Licensee's use of the facilities granted by this agreement, whether or not arising from any negligence, fault or legal liability of the Church, its officers, members, clergy, staff, agents and volunteers.

Organizations shall guarantee and agree that any church property real/or personal, which is damaged by Organization arising out of this use agreement, will be repaired or replaced (at the option of the church) at the expense of the Organization.

The church reserves the right at any time to make such reasonable rules and regulations as in its judgment may be necessary for the safety, care, reputation, and cleanliness of the premises.

Other Rules and Regulations:

1. Church facilities cannot be used for the following activities:
  - a. Profitable purposes
  - b. Political, business, promotional or secret activities
2. Organizations shall use only the Fellowship hall, kitchen, restrooms, and shelter areas.
3. Organizations shall comply with the intended use stated above and shall not interfere with the regular conduct of the Church's activities. Organizations shall respect other groups using the facilities and minimize any activities which may prove disruptive such as running in the halls or loud activities during church meetings.
4. Groups using the church's facilities will be responsible for room set up and clean up. The rooms used will be returned to their proper order before leaving except when other advanced arrangements have been made.
