New Sermon Series

Hope for Those Struggling with Addiction

(Key battle texts)

(Psalm 27:4-6; John 16:33; 1 Peter 3:11; James 4:10)

- At its root, addiction is _____ in nature. While there is a _____ aspect to addiction, it is not the starting point.
- It is the process of substituting a _____ upon God for _____ upon something else. And if this is the case—and I believe it is—the most effective tools against addiction are _____ tools like _____.
- For someone struggling with addiction, what we address today in this sermon only _____ the _____ to what you need.
- But today we are going to focus on how the church can help.

James 5:12-20 gives us great guidance...

1. _____ and _____ is key if you are trying to help someone who struggles.
2. Since the Lord is full of _____ and _____, our actions should reflect the same.
3. Be _____, non-judgmental, and _____ when those struggling with addiction open up to you.
4. Avoid doing anything that will _____ them to continue in their _____ behavior.
5. Like the Good Samaritan, help lead them away from _____ into a place of _____.
