Steve's Sentiments

Falling Apart or Falling into Place at Jesus' Feet

One of the hard facts of life is that sometimes life crumbles around our feet: A potential pay raise doesn't materialize, a friend dies unexpectedly, or prayers aren't answered in the way we would prefer. In my study of Biblical passages that deal with building, Jesus' words in Matthew 24:1, 2 caught my eye. He said, "...Truly I say to you, not one stone here shall be left upon another, which will not be torn down." He was speaking of the magnificent temple that Herod had recently refurbished. History tells us that in 70 AD, Jerusalem and the Temple were, in fact, destroyed completely.

It wasn't the plan of God to "repurpose" the temple (as contemporary designers say today). For reasons known to God, every stone of that temple was to be toppled. Theologically, we understand the purpose of the church, Jesus' bride and missionary, and we can see that with Jesus' sacrifice on the cross—made finally and completely—the temple and its sacrificial system would no longer be needed. Still, did the temple need to be destroyed?

By one perspective, everything fell apart when the temple was razed; from another perspective, the pieces were falling into place for the Gospel message to her website: "We repent of complaining as we wring our hands in despair, thinking our nation and our world are falling apart when they are really falling into place—right at Your feet." The late Southern Baptist Preacher Vance Havner said, "God uses broken things. It takes broken soil to produce a crop, broken clouds to give rain, broken grain to give bread, broken bread to give strength. It is the broken alabaster box that gives forth perfume. It is Peter, weeping bitterly, who returns to greater power than ever."

That feeling of brokenness, when it comes, is permitted and can even be used by God to bring about a greater purpose or better situation that will enable us to serve Him more effectively. As Paul put it, "...God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose" (Rom. 8:28). So, even if what we have built seems to crumble, let's "...not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus" (Phil. 4:6,7).

be spread across the globe! People no longer needed to go to Jerusalem to find God. The Christians were as shocked as anyone to see the temple destroyed by the Romans; it was a place of prayer for them, too. They must have also wondered if things were falling apart.

Summer Brings New Schedule

We've had a few Sundays to enjoy a new summer schedule on Sunday mornings. Some comments have been "It was good seeing people I don't normally see on Sunday morning," "I like having more people in the coffee fellowship" and "I like 9:30 better than 8:00." We have also moved all worship services to the sanctuary, as new classrooms are being added to the Estes Center. Both the 9:30 and 11:00 service have a new and different "feel." Tell your friends about these new times and come enjoy the summer schedule:

- 9:30 Classic Worship (Sanctuary)
- Sunday School (Elem. - Adult)
- 10:30 Coffee Break (Fell. Hall)
- 11:00 Cumberland Praise (Sanctuary)
- Sunday School (Adult Classes)
- 5:00 Youth Meeting (Estes Center)

From the Deacon's Bench

By Ken Smith

Now, before you start asking questions and thinking I have gone off the deep end, yes, I do know that it is the end of July. But have you thought about pumpkins yet?

The work and plans for Pumpkin Patch are alive and well at Cumberland Presbyterian. Everything for this year is moving along. Did you realize that Cumberland has been the Pumpkin Patch church for 12 years? Have you ever told someone that you attend Cumberland and they don't realize where that is? Then you simply say, "The Pumpkin Patch church", and they know exactly where we are located? There are a lot of things that a church can be called, and "Pumpkin Patch" is not a bad thing.

Pumpkin Patch does so much for so many people. Not only does it help the Indians on the reservation in New Mexico, but it also helps with many of the ministries here at the church and in the community as a whole. And don't forget the Praise Party in the Patch and the number of families that we are able to touch with that event. When working in the Patch, it is amazing how many people tell us that they wait for our pumpkins because they know what good will is done with the money received. Last year was a great year and all that helped had a great time.

So plan now for this year's Pumpkin Patch! Get Ready—They're Coming!

Ethan & Jake are both passionate pastors who worship the same God, but that's where the similarity ends. White and well-to-do Ethan is comfortable in his music ministry at the media-savvy suburban mega-church, the Rock; Jake is a street smart African-American who ministers to the gang members, teen mothers, and drug addicts of the urban Second Chance. When they are suddenly thrown together in a tough neighborhood and forced to work together, Ethan discovers there is no boundary between the streets and the sanctuary. But can their faith overcome the prejudices that divide them? Rated PG-13, apx. 102 min.

August 14

Present-day college freshman & devout Christian, Josh, finds his faith challenged on his first day of philosophy class by Prof. Radisson. Radisson begins class by informing students they will need to disavow, in writing, the existence of God or face a failing grade. As other students begin scribbling "God Is Dead" on pieces of paper, Josh finds himself at a crossroads between his faith and his future. Josh offers a nervous refusal, angering his smug professor. Radisson assigns him a daunting task: Josh must prove God's existence by presenting arguments and evidence throughout the semester. The film will educate, entertain, and inspire. Rated PG, apx. 113 min.

August 21

Based on the #1 best-seller, HEAVEN IS FOR REAL brings the true story of a small-town father who must find courage & conviction to share his son's life-changing experience with the world. The film stars award-winning actor Greg Kinnear as Todd Burpo and co-stars Kelly Reilly as his wife Sonja, the real-life couple whose son Colton claims to have visited Heaven during a near-death experience. Colton recounts details of his amazing journey and speaks about things that happened before his birth—things he couldn't possibly know. Todd and his family are then challenged to examine the meaning from this remarkable event. Rated PG, Apx. 99 min.

WHAM Helps Advance Jordan Sims' Passion for Worship

WHAM (Women Helping Advance Missions) would like to continue to help support Jordan Sims, granddaughter of Herb & Gerri Craghead, in her one-year residency at the Ridge Residency in Austin. She is doing hands-on ministry along with taking some seminary & missions classes. She will be going on mission trips to Uganda as well as other places.

Jordan's mother, Sharon Craghead Sims, grew up in CPC. Jordan lost both her parents to cancer. She came back to Lubbock to live when her mother, Sharon, moved here for cancer treatments and care. Jordan attended CPC for a while before going to live with her aunt, Jenny Watson. Jordan just graduated from Baylor with a degree in worship technologies.

If you would like to help support Jordan, you may make your check out to CPC with "Ridge Residency" in the memo line & drop it in the offering plate or mail it to the church. About $1200 has been collected so far. We will collect offerings until Aug. 3.

ICE CREAM!

WHAM served about 55-60 people at their ice cream social in the Fellowship Hall on Sun., July 27. Sandwiches, chips, cookies & homemade ice cream were served. An offering was collected for missions (Jordan Sims' residency—see above). Thank you, WHAM!

Pastor Steve leads some participants in prayer at our Night of Prayer & Worship July 18.

TREASURER'S TALK

By Richard Trussell

Reimbursement or Donation?

If you purchase items for Cumberland Presbyterian Church, you have two options. You can either request reimbursement for the amount of purchase or donate your purchase to the church. Two forms outside the church treasurer's office can assist you with this.

Filling out a Check Request Form and attaching a receipt will enable you to receive a reimbursement check from the church. If you paid sales tax for the purchase, that will also be reimbursed to you. To qualify for reimbursement, your purchase can be made by cash, check, or credit card.

A receipt must be attached to the form regardless of the type of payment.

To donate the purchased item, you will use the Receipted Donation Request Form. Your purchase can be made by cash, check, or credit card. A receipt must be attached to the form regardless of type of payment. Rather than receiving a reimbursement check, your donation will appear on your contribution statement as a receipted donation.

Whichever form is used, be sure to attach the receipts and leave the form in the box outside the church treasurer's office or slide it under the door.
