

Pray 4 Every Home

What is it? A collaborative prayer effort of many churches, many believers to pray for every household in the state—by name.

Imagine it. What might God do?

- What divine appointments might be kept?
- How might our neighborhoods be changed?
- How many broken relationships could be restored?
- Would we experience a miraculous disciple-making explosion?

Why pray for neighbors?

In a typical community—with 100 average neighbors—here's reality:

- 7 struggle with depression & thoughts of suicide
- 7 more abuse or are addicted to drugs or alcohol
- 14 are crippled with fear & anxiety

A God Appointment

At the gas station--one of our prayer volunteers with Pray 4 Every Home--found himself in the middle of an appointment set by God.

Louis Rosenthal, pastor of The McKinney First Baptist Church, is a praying neighbor both to those in his residential neighborhood and those who live near the church.

One afternoon while filling up his vehicle with gas, Louis took notice of a woman at an adjacent pump.

"She needed some help to pay for her gas. I gave her a $20 bill and told her I know what it's like."

Conversation carried from there as the woman shared a bit about her situation.

Then, Louis asked for her name. He recognized it because he'd just prayed for her that very morning!

*"After hearing her name, I asked if she lived at the Tennessee apartments. She looked at me funny, but told me yes, she did. I explained who I was and what we'd been doing to pray for neighbors. I was able to tell her, "I prayed for you this morning. She almost cried, and then she started telling me her story."

That morning, Louis had prayed for 5 people by name on his list. He'd asked God to give him--or some other person who knows Jesus is Lord--the opportunity to share the gospel with anyone on the list who was not saved.

God answers prayers. He is mighty to save.
