Suppose I Wanted To Destroy America?

Years ago, when I was a Seminary student at Southwestern in Fort Worth, I met Governor Mike Huckabee. Mike and I are the same age, and he and I had one class together, vocational evangelism, taught by Dr. Oscar Thompson. Mike and I sat across the aisle from each other for a semester. Fast forward to about 2012 and I got to say hello to Mike again at a Dinner hosted by the Messianic Jewish Bible Institute in Dallas. Mike was the keynote speaker. Mike and I didn't hang out together, and we weren't "best friends" during Seminary, but I have always appreciated and respected him.

In July this past summer, Mike wrote an article that intrigued me. It was titled, "Suppose I wanted to destroy America?" I will edit his comments, but here's that message. It seems very timely to me today with the riots, the coronavirus, the upcoming elections, etc.

"Do you ever get the idea that some of the people in our country just don't like it? Even some elected officials who want to govern the country say we need to dismantle the very structures of America. So, suppose I wanted to destroy America? What would be the best way to do it?

I would first replace the education system top to bottom. Instead of giving students the tools to think, reason, and analyze based on hard facts, I'd give them a system in which everyone thinks alike. Deviating from "group think" would be strictly forbidden, and would result in a person being scorned, ostracized, and prohibited from even being employed. I'd erase all substance and symbols of history. Instead of ensuring that students actually read and understood the documents of our origin, like the Constitution, I'd focus instead on pop culture and demonize George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, John Adams, and James Madison by never allowing students to see what these men actually said or did. I'd find any flaw in them and make that the only thing kids learned.

Second, I would seek to undo the system of economic capitalism which rewarded work and innovation. I wouldn't demand equality of opportunity. And why take the risk of working from early to late, if all it netted you was the same as the person who came late, left early, and never created anything? I would just give everyone a trophy. No one would ever lose. Everyone would be the same.

Third, I would get rid of law enforcement. Cops get in the way of us doing what we want, taking what belongs to others, and having civil order. The problem is not the lack of law enforcement, but the presence of law enforcement.

Fourth, I would use words that cover my real intentions. I would say equality, when I mean favoritism. I would say tolerance when I really mean intolerance. I would say women's health when I really mean doing a very unnatural surgical procedure to kill a baby.

Fifth, I would marginalize religion and brand its adherents as fanatics, bigots, hate-mongers, and racists because believing in absolutes like love, forgiveness, charity, sacrifice, and service are a real threat to controlling people and making them follow what they are told.

I would never attack America with a bomb, bullets, or battleships. I'd just lie about her history and origins, destroy every symbol of its legacy both good and bad, indoctrinate instead of educate, and take away all ownership of private property.

But, I don't want to destroy America. I love America. And that's why I won't let her get destroyed without a fight!"

So, what about you and me? Will we be a voice and a vote for Judeo-Christian values? Will we be known to others by what we are against as well as for? Will the salt leave the salt shaker to make a difference? Will we stay safe and popular with our words and actions, or take some risks for the sake of good and Godly influence? Where would we be today without those before us who stood/fought in times past?

Is it our turn?

God bless you!

Kent Pate, Ph.D. Executive Director

Annual Church Profiles

It's that time of year again for the Annual Church Profiles. Church clerks/secretaries should begin gathering info on your church officers for the coming year with their current mailing addresses, phone numbers, etc.

ACP's can be completed online. SBTC does not mail out a paper form anymore. BGCT will mail a paper form as well as an online option.

Please call the RBA Office if you have any questions or need help!

Please complete the ACP's as soon as possible so that we can prepare information for the Annual Meeting. If we don't receive the ACP for your Church we can not include it in the RBA Annual Report.

ACP's are due by Friday, October 9, 2020

The Importance of the Annual Church Profile

The ACP is a historical record for your church. The information is printed in the association annual minutes book.

The ACP allows your church to be listed in the BGCT or SBTC annuals, which is one item that helps your church to send messengers.

The IRS checks the convention annuals to prove that a church is entitled to tax-exempt status.
