Interesting Historical Facts: In 1856 seventeen and one half acres was surveyed and purchased from Joel Holbert for twenty five and a quarter cents per acre providing a place for the church and cemetery. Timber was cut and sold to construct the first building, possibly made of logs. During the years surrounding the Civil War, the church enjoyed an integrated congregation and church discipline was exercised without prejudice. The preceding information was borrowed from WCBC minutes, included in an article by D. T. Loyd, and printed in the Gilmer Mirror about 1970. Loyd also states that during the Civil War "There seemed to be peace and harmony in the church...."
