Interesting Historical Facts: August 1867 WCBC entered into contract with the lowest bidder and construction began. The foundation was constructed of hand hewed sills and ten inch shiplap siding. The church was ceiled in 1913, but never painted.

Ben Wilson bought three acres in 1916 leaving 14.5 acres.

Plans for a new building began in 1922, again selling timber to raise money. The existing building was demolished in 1928 and lumber sold to offset cost. The same hand-hewed sills were used and support the old church today. Building continued in 1945 with the addition of four class rooms. The auditorium is all that remains of this building appropriately named Walnut Creek Memorial Chapel.

Hand made hardwood pews were bought in 1949. Mrs. Ruth Oliver and Alleene Jones provided a rostrum made by Hugh Oliver. The growing church added four rooms in 1954. Three rooms opened through folding doors into one large Junior Education room and hardwood floors were added throughout. The completion of a well in 1955 made running water available. One of the first class rooms was converted into two restrooms.
