

MEET OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS

My name is Sondra Rierson and I have been teaching Sunday School for 4 years. My husband Jeremy and I have two children, Maggie and Hank.

Through teaching our youth about the Bible, my relationship with God has grown so much stronger. I am so thankful for this! And I have learned so much from teaching and from my students. I enjoy getting to know the children in our church, and their families.

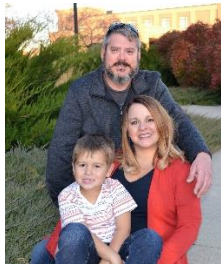

There have many fun and funny moments in Sunday School. But I get the most joy from the recognition and warm smiles I get from the children. I want them to feel welcome in church, and when they smile and share something about themselves with me, it makes me feel good.

My name is Renie Osterlund and I have been teaching Sunday School for 4 years. WHOA TIME FLIES!! Seth, my husband and I have one son, Brody.

I enjoy watching God through the kids, seeing them truly learn the love of the Lord has enriched my life more than I can put into words. It's a positive light in my week, every week.

It's hard to narrow it down to just one joyful moment, there have been many. To choose one that stands out would be hearing my own son express his love for Jesus and watching him grow in his faith.

MEET OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS

My name is Katie Kruse and I have been teaching Sunday School for 4 years. My husband, Jered and I have two sons, Madden and Miller.

Teaching Sunday School is joyful to me because I get to see the light and joy in the kid's eyes when they realize how awesome God is.

I can't pick one joyful moment, but every time the kids sing it brings me joy. I love listening and watching them practice our songs each week. Watching their performance during church service each month is also fun! You never really know what will happen when they get in front of the crowd!

I'm Duke Anneberg and I'm the oldest confirmed (1941) consecutive member of the Carroll Methodist congregation and have been teaching Sunday School for 30+ years. God is the only one who know for sure!

Teaching helps me stay closer to Jesus, through my student's prayers and sharing! What a joy!

My most joyful moment is when Pastor Terry joined us for class.
