

Osage River Baptist Association

Mission Trip | Summer 2019

When

Monday, July 15 to Sunday, July 21

Where

Amarillo, Texas

Purpose

The Osage River Baptist Association (ORBA) team will serve alongside Tradewind Community Church (TCC). The team will participate in Gospel-centered ministry opportunities, including:

- Prayer walking the Tradewind neighborhood of Amarillo;
- Serving at community outreach events, including at a sports day camp for kids in Tradewind School Park on Thursday, July 18.
- Sorting and preparing school supplies for students at Tradewind Elementary School.
- Setting up for TCC's preview worship service on Sunday, July 21.
- Serving as kids ministry volunteers during TCC's preview worship service on Sunday, July 21.

The trip also will include opportunities to explore Amarillo.

Lodging and Meals

Team members will stay at High Plains Retreat Center, located about 20 minutes south of Amarillo. The lodge has a dormitory-style rooms and a kitchen.

Lunches will be provided by TCC and its sending church, South Georgia Baptist Church.

Cost

The cost of the trip is estimated to be about $225 per person (lodging, two meals per day, a TCC T-shirt). The cost does not include travel expenses.

About TCC

TCC is a new Southern Baptist church located in a southeast neighborhood of Amarillo, Texas. It is a church plant of South Georgia Baptist Church in Amarillo.

TCC is affiliated with the Amarillo Area Baptist Association and the Baptist General Convention of Texas. TCC plans to launch weekly worship services in September 2019.
