Weekly News for August 26th, 2016

What are we learning?

Reading: Our story is "Exploring Space with an Astronaut." We will be working on words with long vowels. We will be introduced to different syllable types. We will be writing a nonfiction story, working with main ideas and supporting details.

Science: We will study different parts of plants and their habitats. We will be planting flowers and are looking forward to watching them grow.

Religion: We will be studying people and stories from Genesis.

Social Studies: We continue to compare and contrast different types of communities.

Math: We will continue to work on addition strategies.

Important Dates

September 9th: Midterm

September 14th: Progress Reports come home

September 23rd: Hog Roast and Book Fair
