

Mrs. Akers' Newsletter

December 10th-14th, 2018

What We're Learning:

Religion: We will be studying the Christmas story.

Reading/Language Arts: "A Weed is a Flower" is our story this week. We will be looking at inventions and the different ways in which they impact our lives. We will also work on understanding cause and effect and story structure.

Spelling: The new word list is in the back pocket of your child's purple homework folder. We are working on endings this week.

Social Studies: We will continue working on our unit on wants and needs.

Math: We continue to work on subtraction strategies. Please work on math facts with your child at home.

Science: We will finish our unit on life cycles and will be testing over it on Thursday.

Memory: Isaiah 9:6 (See December 2018 Memory handout.)

Important Dates/Reminders:

1. Our field trip to Kokomo OpShop is this Thursday, December 13th. Look for more information to come home on Wednesday (12/12).
