This week in Second Grade:

- Religion: We will be continuing our unit on Jesus' miracles.
- Reading: Our story is "The Night the Moon Fell." We will be working on compound words and learning about adverbs. Reading test will be on Friday.
- Writing/Language Arts: We will discuss writing emails and different reasons for doing so. Students will also write their own email.
- Social Studies: We will continue learning about Black History Month and U.S. Presidents.
- Math: We will be working on different types of graphs and analyzing the data from them.
- Science: We will finish our chapter on life cycles and will test over it on Thursday.
- Memory (due 2/16): The Third Commandment (See February memory schedule.)
- Spelling: The new spelling list is in the back of your child's homework folder. Our new word list will also be posted on Spelling City so that the students are able to practice at home. Spelling test will be on Friday!
