This week in Second Grade:

- Religion: We will be continuing our unit on Jesus' miracles.
- Reading: This week's story "The First Tortilla" is a legend. We will continue to study adverbs that describe when and where things happen. We will also work on syllables and understanding how parts of words work together. Reading test will be on Friday.
- Writing/Language Arts: We will be working on writing thank you letters.
- Social Studies: We will be talking about different types of resources. We will also work on map skills.
- Math: We continue to work on graphing.
- Science: We will learn about landforms, soil, and ways to protect the Earth.
- Memory (due 2/15): The Third Commandment (See February memory schedule.)
- Spelling: The new spelling list is in the back of your child's homework folder. Don't forget that you're also able to practice on www.spellingcity.com. Spelling test will be on Friday.
