This Week in Second Grade:

Religion: We will continue learning about Jesus' ministry and the miracles He performed.

Reading: Our story is Soil. We will be discussing different types of soil, how they are formed, and their purposes. We will also continue learning about different kinds of adjectives and adding them into our writing.

Reading test will be on Friday.

Writing: We will be working on soil/plant reports in class.

Memory verse: The Second Commandment
(This is on the memory handout I sent out at the beginning of the month.)

Science: We will finish our unit on different life cycles and will test over it on Thursday.

Social Studies: We will be discussing Black History Month and different U.S. Presidents. Be on the lookout for the Presidents Project requirements to come home this week!

Math: We tested over money concepts last week and will begin work on data analysis this week.

Spelling/ Vocabulary: The new spelling list is in the back of your child's homework folder. The words will also be posted on Spelling City so that your child may practice at home.

Spelling test will be on Friday!
