This Week in Second Grade:

Religion: We will continue learning about Jesus' life, beginning with His visit to the Temple.

Reading: Our story is A Froggy Fable. We will study the comparative endings –er and –est. We will continue to work on adjectives and different types of syllables.

Writing: We will be reading Jan Brett stories and doing readers' response activities with them.

Art: We just finished our gingerbread men last week, and they turned out really good! We're also finishing up our stories that go with them. We had a lot of fun with this project!

Science: We will be starting our new chapter on Earth's materials.

Social Studies: We will be working on map skills and start learning about government.

Math: We will test over subtraction on Friday and then begin working on understanding money.

Memory verse: Jeremiah 29:11 (This is on the memory handout I sent out last week.)

Spelling/ Vocabulary: The new spelling list is in the back of your child's homework folder. The words will also be posted on Spelling City so that your child may practice at home.

Spelling test will be on Friday!
