Weekly News for October 6th, 2017

What are we learning?

Reading/Writing/English: Our story is "Abraham Lincoln." We will be working on contractions and classifying proper nouns. We will also be comparing and contrasting different biographies.

Social Studies: We will continue learning about different ways to explore the world.

Science: We are finishing the chapter about animals and their habitats. We are also hard at work on an art project in connection with this unit.

Religion: We will learn about Gideon.

Math: We are still working on three digit addition. Please continue to practice math facts at home with your child!

Helping Hands

This is an after school opportunity for your child to get some extra help with his/her homework. Helping Hands is offered on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 3:30-4:30 with a classroom teacher.

Here is the schedule for this week:

Tuesday: Miss Gross

Wednesday: Mrs. Combs

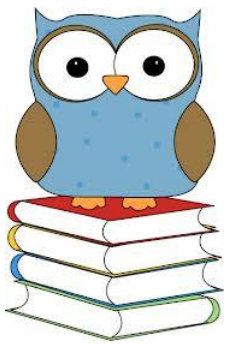

Thursday: Mrs. Waggoner

Field Trip

Our field trip to the Indianapolis Zoo is this Thursday. More information will be coming home in the next couple of days. Please make sure to read it carefully!

Spelling Lists and Memory Sheets

It is very important for the students' spelling lists and memory sheets to stay in the back pocket of their homework folder. We use these several times throughout the week in different activities and for extra practice. Thank you for your help with this.
