Weekly News for September 23rd, 2016

What are we learning?

Reading/Writing/English: Our story is "Tara and Tiree." We will be working on r-controlled vowels (park, sore, etc.). The students will also be working on classifying nouns. Summarizing and following directions are also part of the week.

Social Studies: We continue to work on ways to explore the world. Students need to be able to tell me their address (including zip code) by September 23rd.

Science: We will continue our chapter on animals and their habitats.

Religion: We will continue learning about the Israelites and Joshua and the battle of Jericho.

Math: We are working on three-digit addition, which can be tricky. Please continue to practice math facts with your child at home!

Helping Hands

This is an after school opportunity for your child to get some extra help with his/her homework. Helping Hands is offered on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 3:30-4:30 with a classroom teacher. If you would like your child to attend, please sign her/him up in the school office.

Here is the schedule for this week:

- Tuesday: Miss Gross
- Wednesday: Miss Claucherty
- Thursday: Miss Wilkie

Hog Roast

Our class is in charge of collecting money for carrots and dip for the Hog Roast. Please send in $4 no later than Tuesday, September 20th. Thank you in advance for your help!

Spelling Lists and Memory Sheets

It is very important for the students' spelling lists and memory sheets to stay in the back pocket of their homework folder. We use these several times throughout the week in different activities and for extra practice. Thank you for your help with this.
