Weekly News for September 22nd, 2017

What are we learning?

Reading/Writing/English: Our story is "Tara and Tiree." We will be working on r-controlled vowels (park, sore, etc.). The students will also be working on classifying nouns. Summarizing and following directions are also part of the week.

Social Studies: We've finished our unit on communities and will be testing over it on Wednesday.

Science: We will continue our chapter on animals and their habitats.

Religion: We will be learning about the Israelites wandering in the desert.

Math: We will test over two-digit addition on Tuesday and then will move on to three-digit addition.

Please continue to practice math facts with your child at home!
