BIBLICAL REFLECTIONS

We Were Sinners

There's an old saying within Christianity that goes something like this: "I'm just a sinner, saved by grace." The idea being that we once were completely separated from God because we'd disobeyed (that's the sinner part) but then Jesus did something for us we didn't deserve (that's the grace part) and now we don't have to be separated from God anymore — both now and for eternity. Awesome, huh? The problem is that people who talk about being a "sinner saved by grace" think we're still separated from God. But that's not what the Bible says...

Romans 6:6-11

We know that our old sinful selves were crucified with Christ so that sin might lose its power in our lives. We are no longer slaves to sin. For when we died with Christ we were set free from the power of sin. And since we died with Christ, we know we will also live with him. We are sure of this because Christ was raised from the dead, and he will never die again. Death no longer has any power over him. When he died, he died once to break the power of sin. But consider yourselves to be dead to the power of sin and alive to God through Christ Jesus.
