BIBLICAL REFLECTIONS

He Gives and He Takes Away

It's easy to worship God (do things for Him, not for us) when life is good, right? It's easy to worship Him when a talented praise band is playing a worship song we like. Last week we talked about worshipping God for everything He's given, but what about when He "takes away"?

Read the following passages as many times as you can in 2 minutes.

Job 1:1

There once was a man named Job who lived in the land of Uz. He was blameless—a man of complete integrity. He feared God and stayed away from evil.

Job 1:6-22

...

The truth is that Job never gets an answer as to why God let such horrible stuff happen... and neither do we as the reader. One of the hardest things about being a Christian is that sometimes we don't KNOW why bad things happen. But God promises to take ALL things—even really awful things—and make something good out of them. Part of worship is believing this even when we're confused, hurt, or overwhelmed.
