BIBLICAL REFLECTIONS

How He Loves Us

There's this nasty tendency as a Christian to make things really complicated. Life gets busy and stressful and out-of-control, and we start freaking out. And then we feel like spiritual failures, so we try really, really hard to do all the right things for God—because that's worship right? - and we start feeling like we're spending all our energy TRYING to be good rather than just loving God. Sometimes it's good to step back and just focus on one truth. Jesus loves you. You. Jesus loves you. HE loves YOU.

John 3:16 (read it slowly and carefully, taking in every word.)

For God loved the world so much that he gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life.

Romans 5:8

But God showed his great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners.

1 John 4:9-10

God showed how much he loved us by sending his one and only Son into the world so that we might have eternal life through him. This is real love—not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a sacrifice to take away our sins.

- † Worship only makes sense in a relationship. We can only really worship God when we are in relationship with Him.
- † Things get in the way of our feeling God's presence: stress from school, work, family. It could be pain from someone who has hurt you. It could be bitterness or resentment. Maybe you've allowed disobedience to sneak in to your life.
