BIBLICAL REFLECTIONS

Reading God's Mind

A lot of times we think of God as being hard to know. Sure, we imagine Him loving us (in some vague way). And we're pretty sure He wants us to be good. But in terms of what He's thinking right now—who knows! In terms of His plan for our lives right now, we just kind of hope that if we keep trying to be good then everything will work out. But what if God's plan for us was better than that?

1 Corinthians 2:9-12

That is what the Scriptures mean when they say, "No eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined what God has prepared for those who love him."

But it was to us that God revealed these things by his Spirit. For His Spirit searches out everything and shows us God's deep secrets. No one can know a person's thoughts except that person's own spirit, and no one can know God's thoughts except God's own Spirit. And we have received God's Spirit (not the world's spirit), so we can know the wonderful things God has freely given us.

- † According to 1 Corinthians, God's Spirit—His actual presence — dwells IN everyone who is a Christ-follower. This might seem weird, but spend some time talking to the Spirit of God (the Holy Spirit) who dwells inside you. This is the same thing as talking to God, really. But sometimes it feels different to think of God as swelling IN us. Ask the Holy Spirit for guidance and help in an area of life you are confused about or struggling with.
- † Pray about some of the things you think might be keeping you from hearing God's voice speaking to you. If it's something in your life that you know isn't part of God's plan for you, talk to Him about that. Tell Him you want that area to change.
- † Ask God's Spirit in you to help you walk throughout the day listening to Him.
