BIBLICAL REFLECTIONS

Nice Body!

We live in a world that ranks a person's value by really stupid things. Think about it? How important is it to be a good athlete or actor? Why is being attractive (for a max of 20-30 years) a guaranteed way to get attention? But we as Christians, buy into it. Let's be honest: It's hard for us to believe that our worth isn't determined by how smart/pretty/funny/popular/athletic/well-dressed we are. There are a thousand problems with believing this, but one of the biggest is that it destroys unity with other Christians. Rather than working together to tell the world about Jesus, we fight for who's the most important! But doing that is about as dumb as poking ourselves in the eye.

Romans 12:3-5

<sup>3</sup> Because of the privilege and authority, God has given me, I give each of you this warning: Don't think you are better than you really are. Be honest in your evaluation of yourselves, measuring yourselves by the faith God has given us.

<sup>4</sup> Just as our bodies have many parts and each part has a special function, <sup>5</sup> so it is with Christ's body. We are many parts of one body, and we all belong to each other.

- † If you are struggling with jealousy or gossip toward another Christian, admit it to God and ask Him to help you stop immediately! Admit that you're doing it because you don't feel valued. Ask God for help in getting your value/worth from Him.
- † Ask God a really dangerous/fun question: "If you could use me to do anything, what would it be?" Ask Him to show you a tiny bit of the answer over the next week.

From the book Plugged In: Connecting to the Heart of God's Biblical Principles, by Doug Fields. Cc 2007
